Sounds . . .
countless sounds mirrored in the dreams and fears of life — leering of apathy
 sobbing of defeat
 murmur of scorn
the endless vibrations motivated by today's mood —
 friends' familiar voices laughter's serene hope youth's immortal chords an intricate journey revealed in a myriad of sounds . . .

In Honor of Mrs. Bernice Bonner and Mrs. Jerry McVay

Sharing a profound interest in the individual student, Mrs. Bernice Bonner and Mrs. Jerry McVay serve Lake Highlands enthusiastically and optimistically.

Having taught for seven years, Mrs. Bonner just completed her third year at Lake Highlands High. Striving toward more individualized instruction, Mrs. Bonner gives her students a better understanding of chemistry using an oft-times unorthodox approach to teaching. Mrs. Bonner shows a deep interest in the welfare of students and school which distinguishes her as an outstanding teacher as well as a friend.

An energetic counselor, Mrs. McVay has been at Lake Highlands for nine years. Her career at Lake Highlands began when she taught Shorthand and Bookkeeping. Her current job of counseling is only a small part of Mrs. McVay's burdensome workload. Serving over 500 seniors, she assists students in selecting colleges and careers, choosing courses, in tabulating credits, and hosts countless visiting representatives from various colleges. Students look eagerly toward their futures under the optimistic guidance of Mrs. McVay.

The WILDCAT staff takes pride in dedicating the 1972 WILDCAT to two exceptional faculty members — Mrs. Bernice Bonner and Mrs. Jerry McVay.

Review Features 'Lighter Side'

Looking on the 'Lighter Side' of life this year, the Band hosted the Varsity Revue in honor of the varsity football team and homecoming LH exes. Amid songs, both solo and ensemble, dances, humorous skits, and stirring orations, the 1971 Homecoming Nominees were presented. Under the direction of Roger Moore, the 1971 Varsity Revue once again proved successful in providing a delightful evening of entertainment and in raising funds for the Band's trip to Chicago.

Innovations Spark Homecoming

The high-pitched excitement of a football game, bright-eyed nominees, and the climaxing spirit after two weeks of frenzied activity characterized the 1971-72 Homecoming. The Varsity team compiled a tremendous ground attack and a stingy defense and then threw in a little Homecoming magic to upset the tyrannical Eagle, 12-10, to take the lead in District 13-AAAA. The Homecoming float was sponsored for the second consecutive year by the Student Council, and was the central attraction of the halftime activities. Posed before flowered archways were the 1971-72 Homecoming hopefuls, Amber Babaa, Carol Egerton, Tani Fagala, Minda Goldsmith, Susan Henslee, Paula Palmer, Beverly Sutton, and Judy Willett.

Following the ecstatic victory in the stadium, the keyed up crowd emptied into the cafeteria for the annual Homecoming dance. Beneath glowing lights of green and blue, the group "Star" finalized the evening's festivities.

'Sunshine Seniors' Sweep Olympics

Dreary December weather was pierced by rays of sunshine for the class of '72, as they captured the AFS Girls' Olympic medals for the third straight year. Such events as egg smashing, jello gorging, and tricycle racing, besides enlivening the daily routine, earned more than $700 toward bringing foreign exchange students to LH next year. Climaxing the morning's excitement for the Sophomore "Bar-Belles," Junior "Lollipop Kids," and "Sunshine Seniors" Senior nominee, Buddy Johnson, was announced as the Olympic Sweetheart.

Musical Delights Audience

Proving a successful combination of talents, the Red Masque Society and LH Choirs collaborated in the fall to produce the lively musical "The Fantasticks." Written by Harvey Schmidt and Tom Jones, it is the story of a romantic young couple, who, though hampered by their parents' feud and the villainy of the worldly El Gallo, finally emerge with their love intact. Under the direction of Mr. Ron Brock and the musical direction of Miss Marjean Edgar, each role was double-cast with each cast enacting a separate performance. Beautiful music combined with spirited acting to give this romance a fresh, imaginative air that provided a delightful theater experience.

Band Honored in Chicago

The "Windy City" was the December destination of the Symphonic Band, selected as one of the five bands in the country to perform at the Midwest Band and Orchestra Clinic in Chicago. Rehearsing under the nation's top band directors, the highlight of the trip came when the band performed the Honor Concert Friday night to a capacity crowd. In moments of relaxation between strenuous rehearsals and performances, the 85 bandsmen and 15 adult sponsors took a tour of Chicago, viewing such spots as China Town, Rush Street, and famous museums. Declaring LH Bandsmen Dallas ambassadors to Chicago on the four day trip, Dallas Mayor Wes Wise set aside the day of the Honor Concert Friday, December 17, as LH Band Day in Dallas.

Dinners Offer Delicacies

Fund raising projects, teamed with evening activities, proved deliciously successful for the Senior and Sophomore classes. Hosting the second annual Desert Dinner on the night of Open House, the Seniors provided mounds of baked goods and coffee for a minimal admission price. In the spring, the Sophomore class grilled pancakes for voracious crowds, while the LH orchestra provided an after-dinner performance.

Annual Gala Honors Favorites

Mr. and Miss LHHS

Perky cupids and red hearts dangled over the heads of excited nominees as Class Favorites and Honorees were presented at the 1972 Favorites Ball. Sponsored by the Student Council and emceed by SC officers Mark Houck and Minda Goldsmith, the annual Valentine gala rocked to the beat of "Texas." Music, excitement, and good times were the order of the night as the Favorites Ball came to a successful conclusion.

Seniors Jack Crews and Christie Caldwell were selected by the student body for the coveted title of Mr. and Miss LHHS. Other nominees were Kirk Coppedge, Terry Harris, Mark Houck, Bobby Vernon, Carol Egerton, Susan Henslee, Linda Merritt, and Paula Palmer.

THIS PAGE: Strolling down the regal red carpet as Mr. and Miss LHHS, Christie Caldwell and Jack Crews glow with excitement. Most Likely to Succeed

Several outstanding Seniors were honored by their class with the nomination for Most Likely to Succeed. From among nominees Diane Lovell, Ellen Myer, Stevvi Stites, Jill Zelios, Kim Dinsmoor, Garth Griffiths, Steve Herrington, and Dave Pace, seniors selected Minda Goldsmith and Gary Wright to receive this title.

Senior Favorites

The Class of '72 chose David Schara and Dana Henderson to receive the title of Senior Favorite. Girls nominated for this position were Barbara Crute, Denise Leonard, Claudia Loy, Joyce Tackett, and Vicki Traylor. Boys nominated were Jim Asa, Steve Brown, Jim Hazen, Jerry Hoyt, and Bob McClung.

Junior Favorites

Presentation Spins Veil of Magic

Strolling through an archway of spring flowers and descending to a stately red carpet, Y-Teens completed a year of hard work and anticipation. Traditionally seniors and Y-Teens officers were presented with their escorts to a large crowd of fellow club members and parents at the annual Presentation Ball. Individual appreciation and gifts were awarded to President Linda Merritt and sponsors Mrs. Becky French and Miss Karen Bouteller during the gala affair at the Grand Ballroom at the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel. The soft sound of the "Theme From the Summer of '42" and the hard rock beat of "Star" provided an unparalleled evening of pleasure.

Highlandettes Reflect Yesteryear

Reflecting upon the colorful days of "yesteryears" in a typically original variety of dance, skit, and choral arrangements, the Highlandettes and cheerleaders recreated the highlights of the present era in their spring production of "This Fabulous Century." Weeks of choreographing, sewing costumes, and rehearsing laid the foundation for the drill team's eighth successful venture. Favorites such as Shirley Temple, the Lennon Sisters, and the Ziegfeld Follies came alive again, and moments in history such as the gangster movement, WWII, and the Apollo 8 space walk were revisited. The show brought a fitting close to a year well done by an outstanding group.

THIS PAGE BOTTOM: During an exciting football game, Sharon Hibner and Debbie Benson discuss the next crucial play.

Seniors Stage '12 Years of Superstars'

Taking the place of the traditional Senior play, the Class of '72 created their original show "Seniors '72 in Review: 12 Years of Superstars." Performing various musical numbers interspersed with hilarious comedy skits and run-ons, the Revue played two nights to packed audiences. Tremendously successful, both on stage and in the box office, "Seniors '72 in Review" was a triumphant culmination of the various profitable fund raising projects sponsored by the Class of '72.

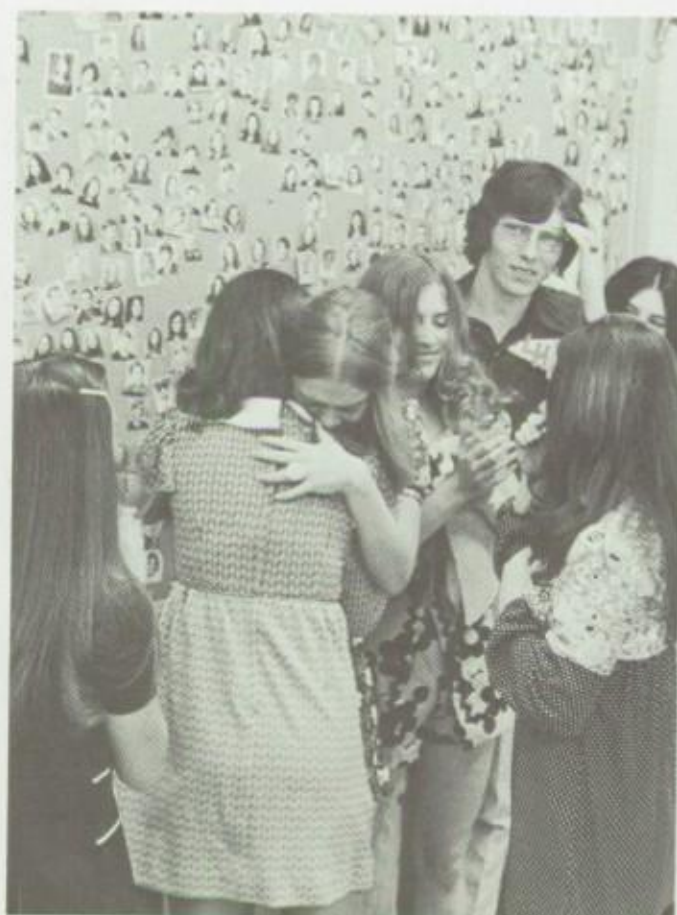

OPPOSITE PAGE TOP: Dreaming of graduation, the Lemmon Sisters, Peggy Osterholm, Carol Smith, Dana Henderson, and Cindy Sands, sing their popular hit of the 50's. Positions Filled for '72-'73

Spring, traditionally the time of regeneration and change, heralded the incoming of eager juniors to take over the responsibilities of next year as Seniors. After the dust of selections, tryouts, and elections had settled, LH had a new set of Student Council Officers, Cheerleaders, Bell Boys, and Highlandette Officers ready to carry on tradition in 1972-73.

THIS PAGE TOP: Student Council Officers for 1972-73 are John Fallisgaard, Pres.; Bill Edie, V. Pres.; Valerie Runyun, Sec.; Sharon Young, Treas.; and Brenna Edwards, Hist. Assemblies Exhibit Creative Approach

Students attending school assemblies in the 1971-72 year witnessed the results of a variety of creative approaches to the task of raising money.

The KLIF High-Hoopers battled against the LH faculty in a closely contested basketball game which served as a money-raising project for the Flying Club. Keeping with the theme of sports, the LH wrestlers exhibited their special skills in a spring assembly held to raise money for new equipment. Cheered on by an impatient crowd, faculty members mastered Key Clubbers in the annual Key Club basketball game later in the spring. The choir gave their final concert in April, performing songs from the score of the Broadway musical "Brigadoon."

Patriotic Assembly Greets Pilgrimage

Emphasizing love of country and a strengthening of patriotism, the annual Patriotic Assembly was held as a "Pilgrimage of America Through Sight and Sound." Coordinated by Mrs. Mary Marlar, the program featured guest singers Bill James of the "Centurymen," his assistant Nathan Stone, and the LH Orchestra, Band, and Mixed Choir. The visual presentations of slides and spotlights, accompanied by medlies of patriotic songs made this seventh annual Patriotic Program a night to remember.

Assembly Commends Achievements

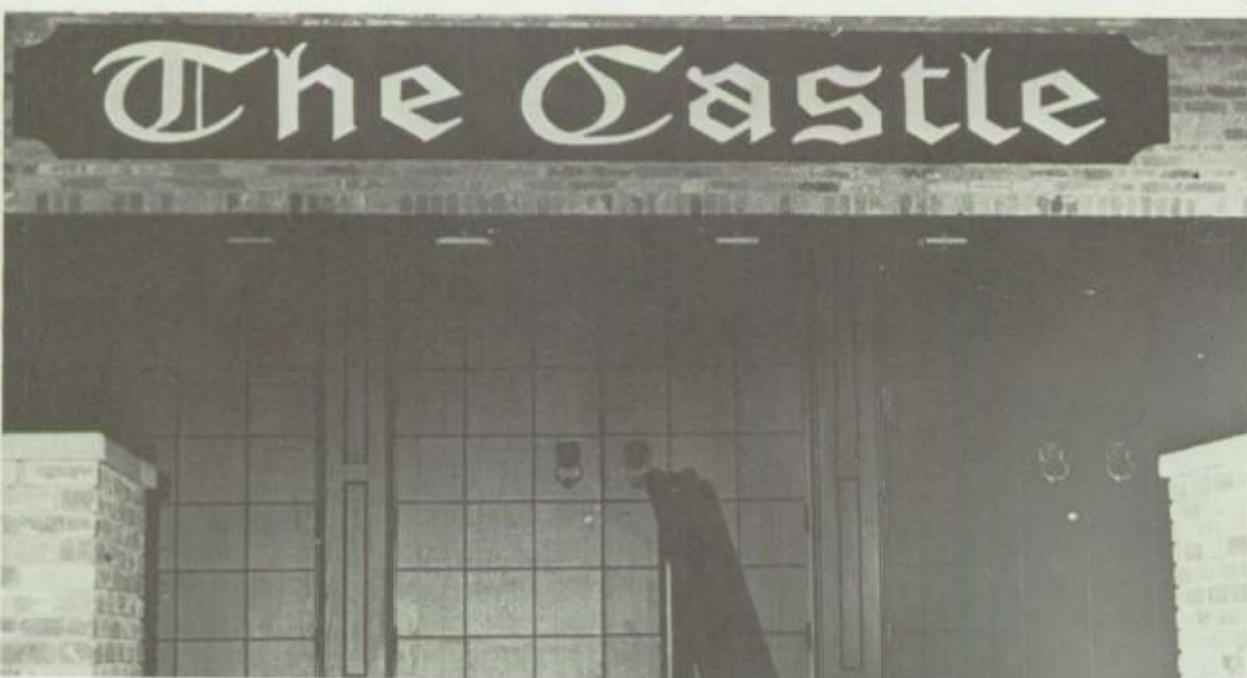

Recognizing the efforts and achievements of students throughout the year, the annual awards assembly was held in May. Awards received by deserving students included the Ronnie Eller award, departmental awards, athletic awards, and creative writing awards. Several seniors also received scholarships, and recognition was given for scholastic sweaters, honorary organizations, patriotism, citizenship, and service.

Prom Initiates Senior Celebrations

Following three years of fund-raising projects, the Class of '72 indulged in their last dance, the Senior Prom. The Royal Coach Inn opened its doors to an overwhelming crowd. Bringing back to life sounds of yesteryear, Baccus and Rose provided a swinging background to an entertaining evening. As the night drew quickly to a close, Seniors had only to show their memories that led them to the Senior Prom.

Baccalaureate Inaugurates Commencement

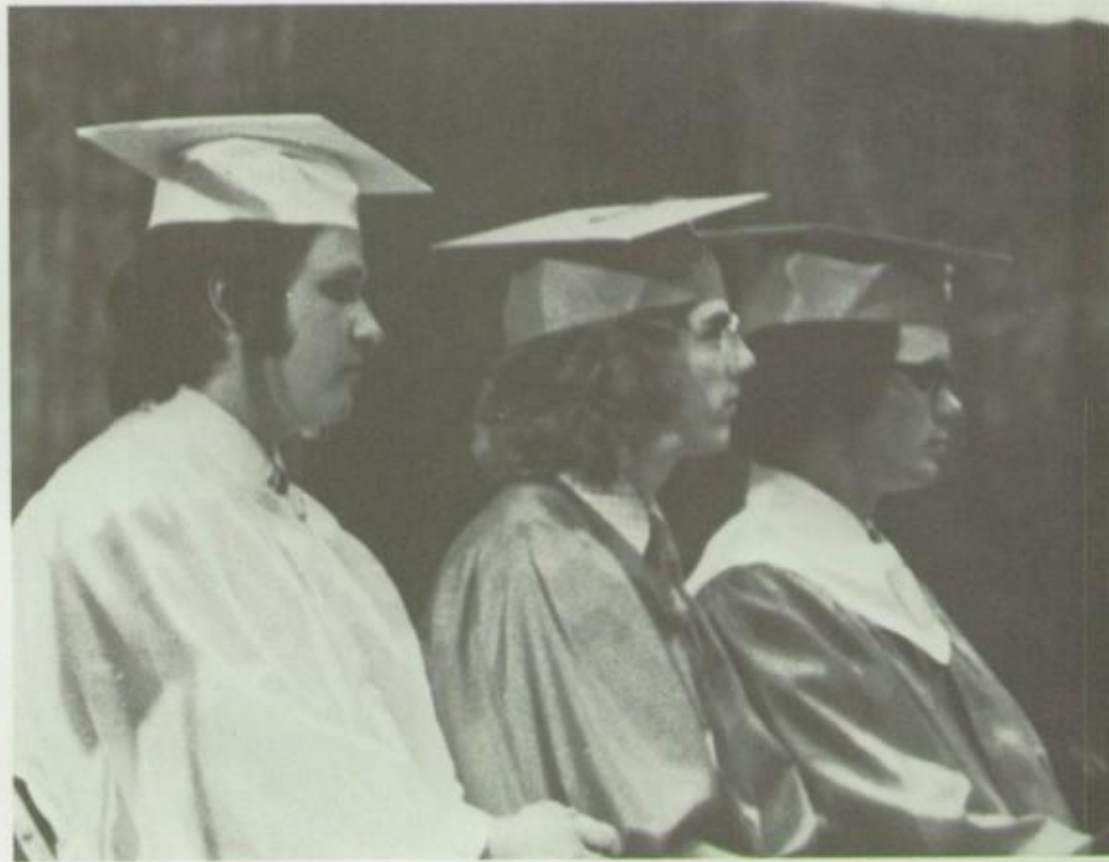

Beginning commencement exercises for Seniors '72, Baccalaureate Service was held Sunday, May 28, in the Richardson High School Auditorium. Dr. Herbert T. Minga of White Rock Methodist Church, spoke to the tightly packed assembly of excited graduates and their parents. Included in the ceremonies was an invocation by Bill Pegler and a benediction by Scott Stewart. The annual service held traditionally before graduation served as a time for Seniors to be thankful that their past had been completed successfully while anticipating plans for the future.

Final Ceremony Ends Graduation Activities

Garbed in caps and gowns of red and white, the Class of '72 filed in to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" to attend the formal, culminating ceremony of their years in high school. Following the welcoming address by Salutatorian Richard Stade, seniors received their long-awaited diplomas from school board members Mr. Paul Ashby and Mr. John Stallings. Valedictorian Garth Griffiths then gave the farewell address, bringing to a close an evening of mixed emotions as seniors graduated from high school into a new phase of their lives.

Mission Impossible Accomplished

Celebrating the newly won status of graduate, seniors attended "Mission Impossible," the All-Night Party which was held at the Country Dinner Playhouse and the Triangle R ranch. Seniors participated in such fun-filled activities as dancing, egg-throwing and goat-roping after drawing for a myriad of prizes. An open air breakfast at dawn drew seniors together for the last time before heading for home and future destinations.

Senior Picnic Celebrates Freedom

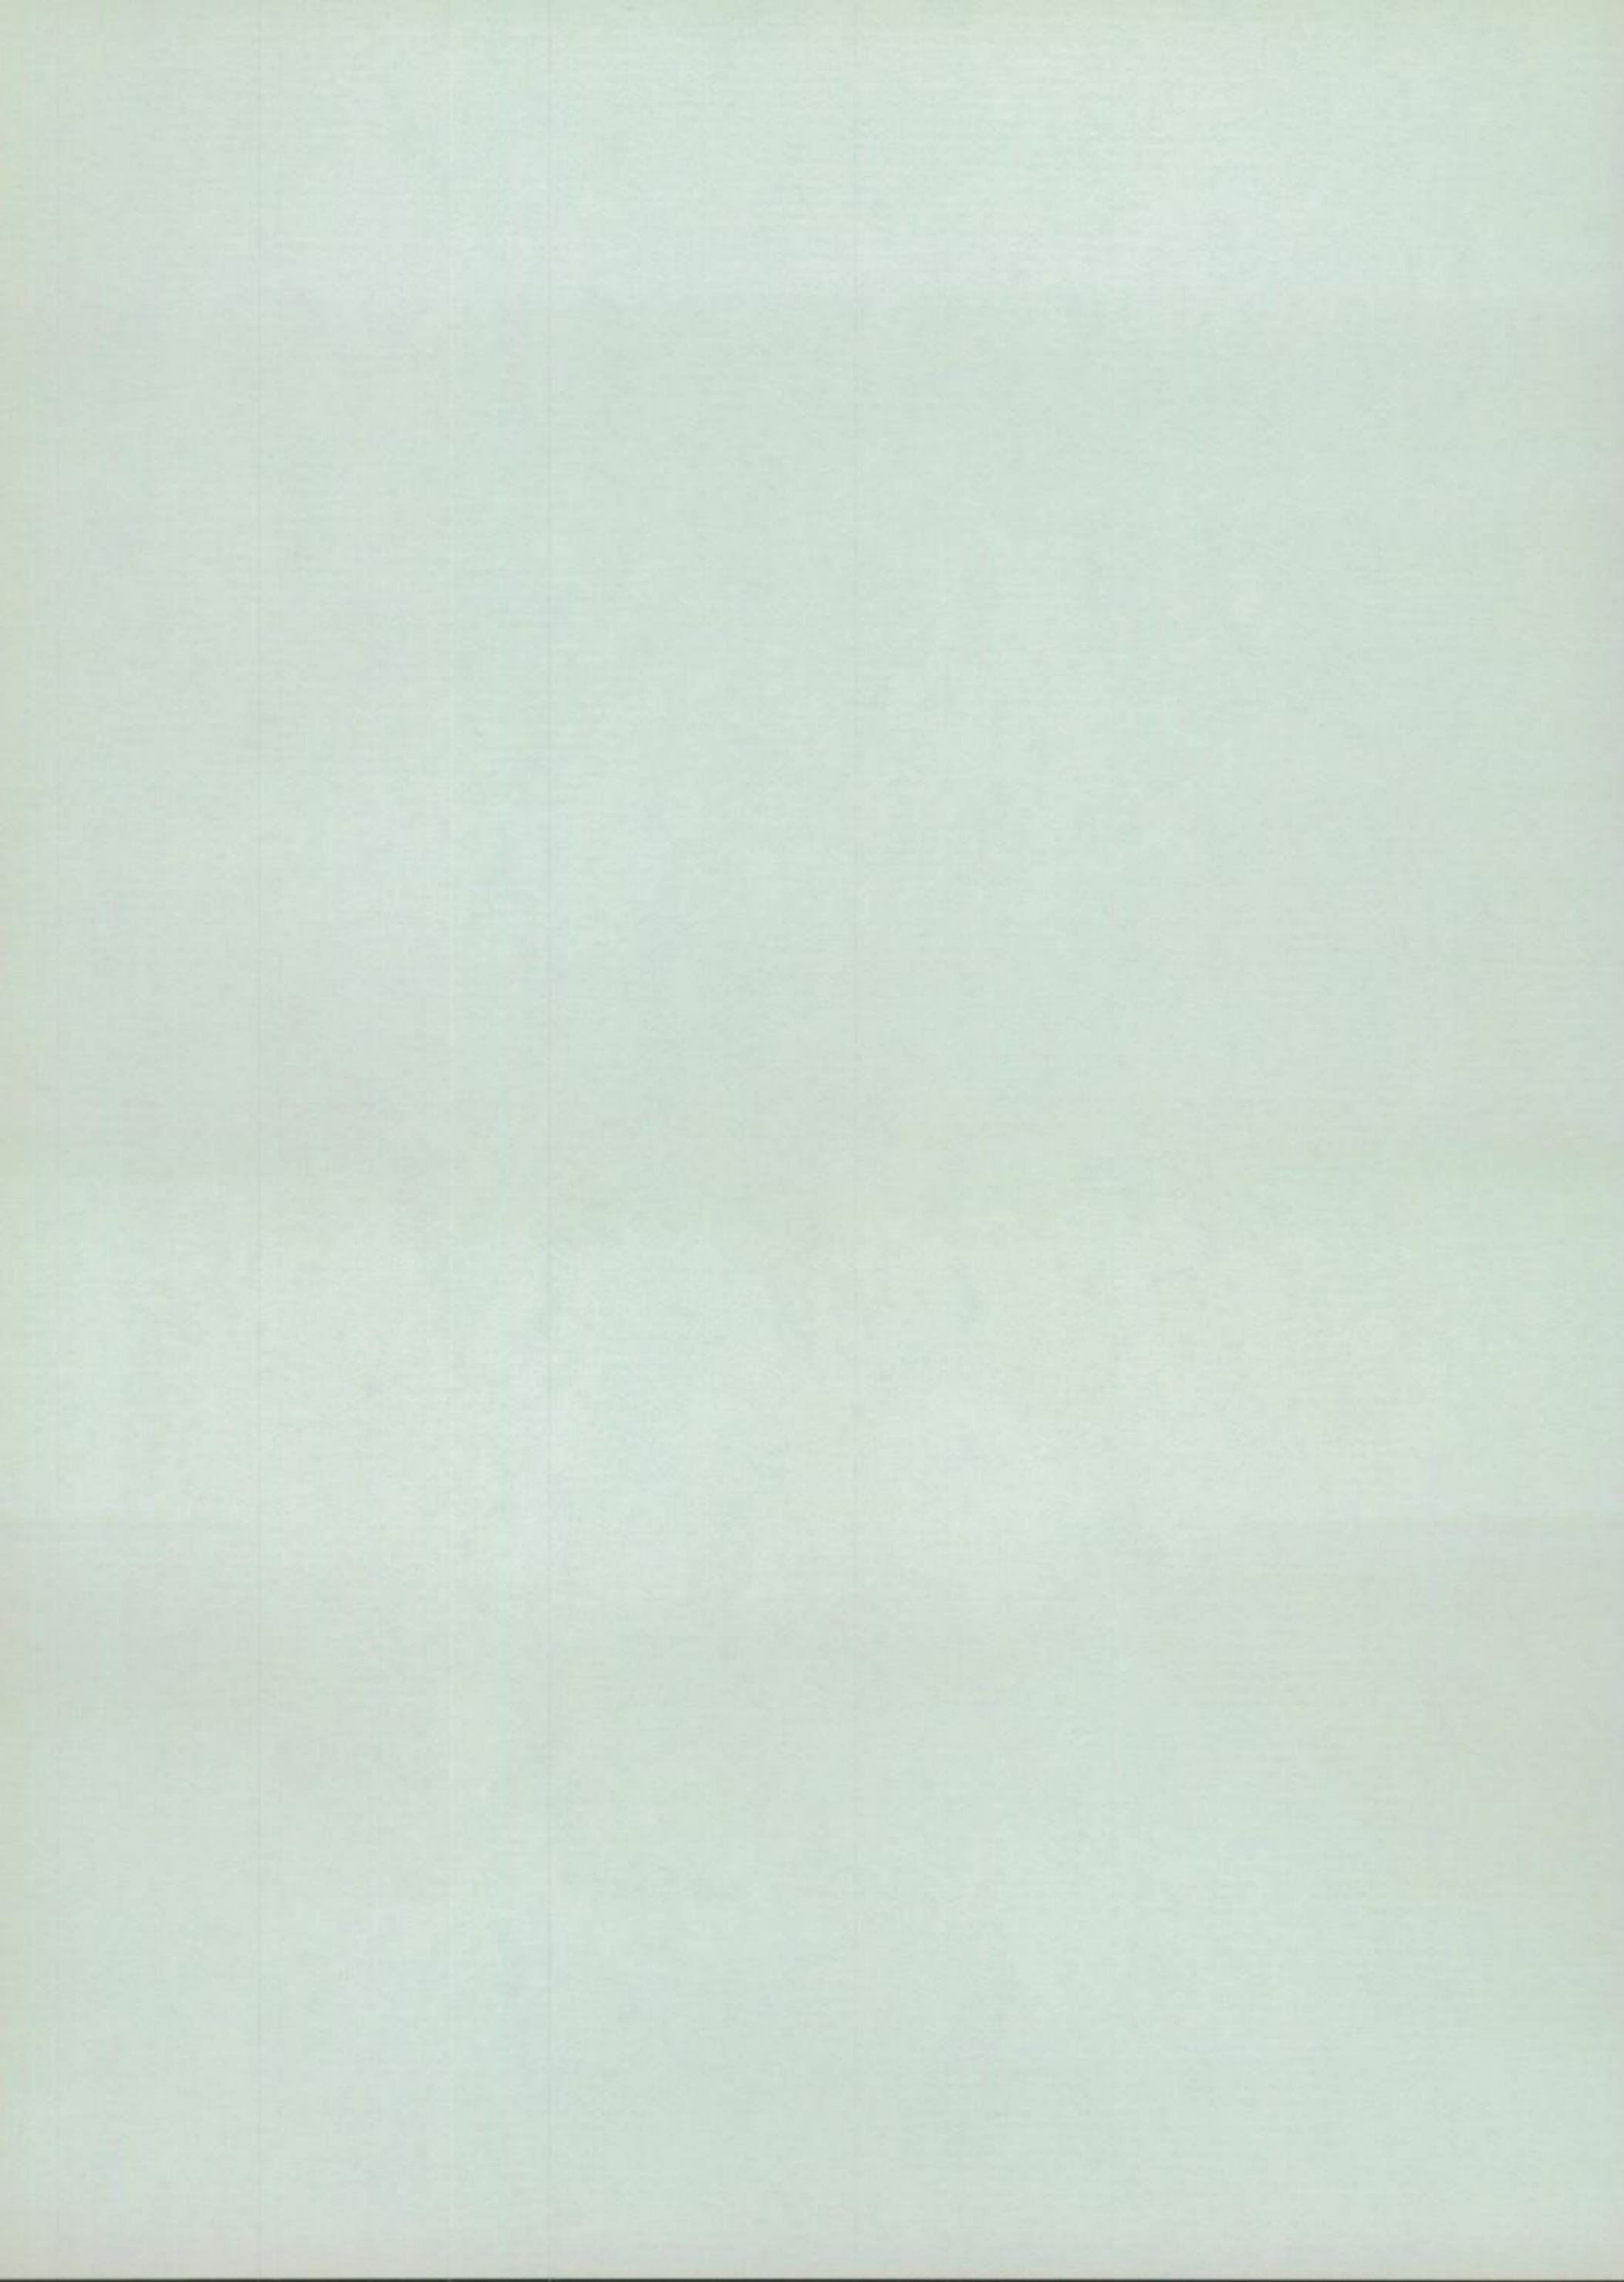

Celebrating their freedom from books and exams, the Senior pre-graduates set out on bikes for Winfrey Point. The abundant Senior treasury provided drinks and everyone brought their own lunches. Games of baseball, football, and soccer set the pace as the Seniors shared a relaxing afternoon.

Organizations

Interact Strives for Understanding

Aiding individuals and groups, the Interact Club began its first year at LH. Sponsored by Mr. Neil Patton, the club is a worldwide organization of young people dedicated to international understanding. This service organization for "boys who care" held bi-monthly meetings, seeking to help those who needed assistance. A Christmas party at the Children's Medical Center showed the club's genuine interest in helping others.

SC Provides Opportunities for Involvement

Branching out from traditional activities, the 1971-72 Student Council produced a myriad of new ideas and projects. Financed largely through the All-American SC Bookstore, the Council was responsible for some of the most successful activities of the year. Pre-season plus, summer concerts co-sponsored with the LHYAC drew large crowds from the entire area. Frantic flower-making preceded the appearance of the second annual Homecoming Float at the traditional football game, and the dance that followed drew a profit for the first time. Thanksgiving and Christmas inspired a food collection and a toy drive for needy families, and the Yuletide halls were brightened by a door decoration contest between homerooms. Caroling in hospitals and repeated attempts to initiate a tutoring project also stemmed from Student Council concern. Second semester, an elegantly successful Favorite's Ball made February a memorable month, and a Voter's Registration Drive gave 302 Wildcats a chance to participate as citizens using the 18-year-old vote. Leaving in style, the Student Council co-sponsored an indoor rock concert in March, and bowed-out to officers-election in April after an exciting, innovative year.

THIS PAGE TOP: Junior Terry Everett entwines paper flowers into the grilled framework of the borrowed Y-Teen arch in preparation for the annual SC Favorite's Ball.

Council Stirs Cooperation Among Clubs

Formed last year, the primary purpose of the Interclub Council was to assure cooperation among the various organizations at Lake Highlands. Composed of representatives from each LH club, the Council helped to avoid conflicting scheduling, and also participated in the fund drive for Ruby Davis.

THIS PAGE RIGHT: ICC coordinator and president Mark Houck busily prepares himself for officiating over the sophomore class speeches as they make their bid for class officerships.

Key Club Exhibits Spirited Energy

Keying in on school and community service activities, the Key Club exhibited another year of endless energy. Special contributions made by the Club include travel bags given to the basketball and baseball teams and a vacuum sweeper for the parking lot. Under the leadership of Mr. Charles Moore, the Key Clubbers contributed to the success of the March of Dimes, sponsored the Bellboys, and hosted the Texas-Oklahoma District Convention.

Junior Exchange Aids Community Service

Supporting a foreign orphan child, sponsoring the wrestling tournament, and organizing the Festival of Life were among the service projects provided by the 1971-1972 Junior Exchange Club. Sponsored by Mr. J. L. Kane, the club met twice monthly to participate in activities geared toward serving the community.

Exchangettes Reap Second Successful Year

Providing service to Lake Highlands and the community, the Junior Exchangette Club began its second year as an LH club. With the aid of sponsor Martha Walker, the club chartered buses to the Greenville football game, and promoted the school-wide Toy Drive during the Christmas season. Through their various services, the girl's organization fulfilled its aim for the year.

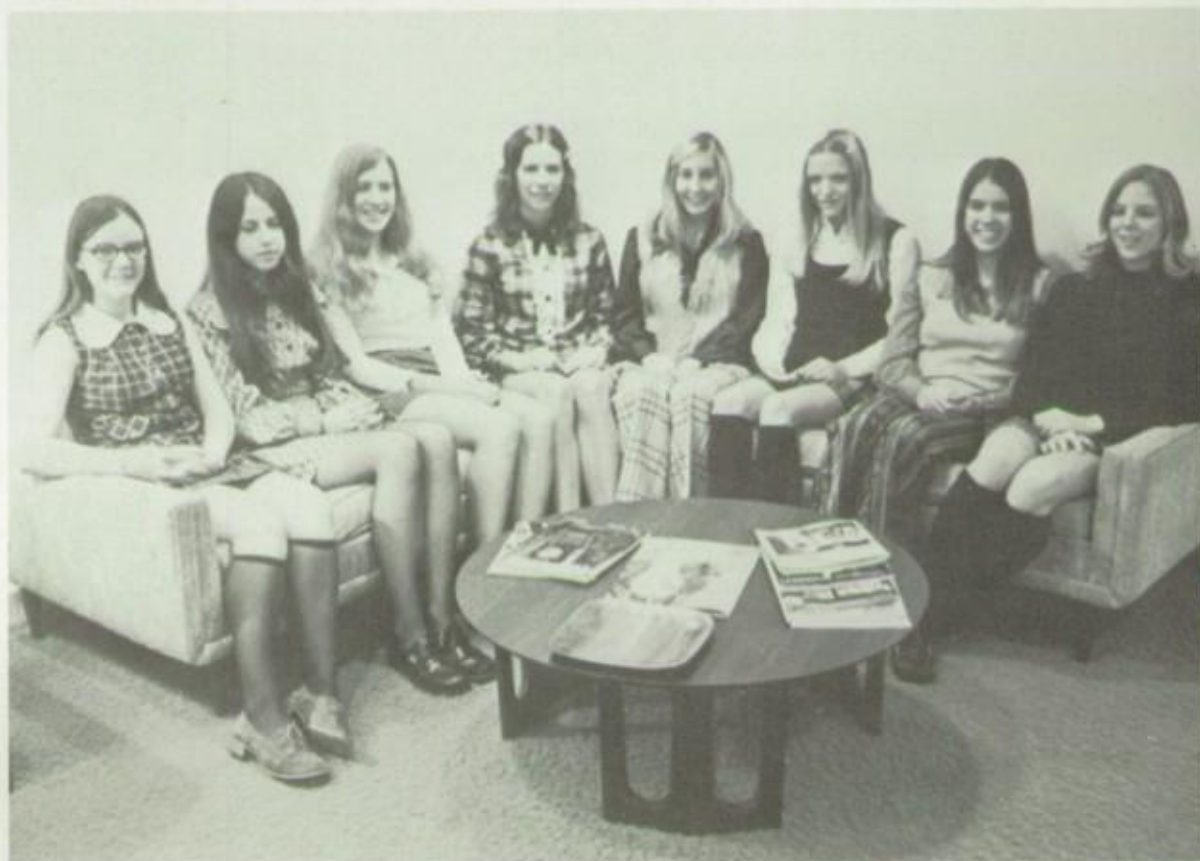

THIS PAGE BOTTOM: Officers are: Carol Pitzer, Pres.; Karen Clapp, V. Pres.; Debbie French, Sec.-Treas.; and Julie Childers, Reporter.

Homemakers Blend Pleasure With Service

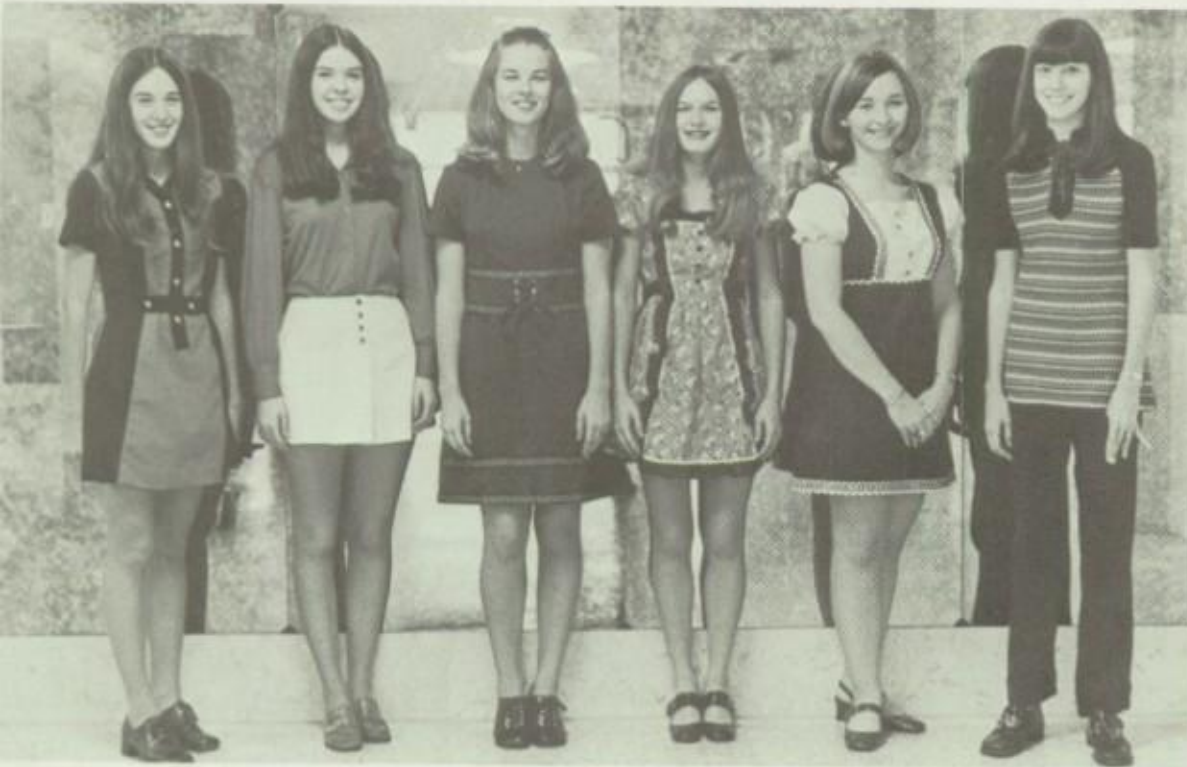

Interested homemakers united to blend pleasure with service for the betterment of the community in this year's FHA, sponsored by Mrs. Mildred Parks. The Invitation Dinner and the Mother-Daughter Banquet typified traditional activities. Special service projects for '71-'72 included a UNICEF collection on Halloween, baking cookies for servicemen and making pictures for blind children.

FTA Honors Teacher of the Year

After wading through piles of valograms and parading the halls singing "Hot Diggity," Future Teachers shared in a successful year of activities. Working with their sponsor, Mrs. Joyce Pittman, members worked to learn more about the teaching profession. During Texas Education Week, members worked overtime holding a babysitting service at Open House, electing "Teachers of the Year," supplying the teacher's lounge with snacks, and holding a masquerade party. Other activities included a Christmas party and Easter egg hunt for the Juliet Fowler Orphanage. A progressive dinner and installation of officers ended a profitable year.

THIS PAGE TOP: Officers are: Joan Muller, Pres.; Georgia Reznik, V. Pres.; Susan Forrester, Sec.; Karen Moredock, Treas.; Darla Faircloth, Hist.; and Glenda Faircloth, Parl.

Y-Teens Work Willingly, Entertain Elegantly

Boasting the largest Y-Teens branch membership in Dallas county, the 209 Y-Teens expanded their format beyond the traditional activities. Co-sponsored by Mrs. Becky French and Miss Karen Bouterell, the club worked diligently to raise their $1,400 goal for the Presentation Ball. In addition to the traditional Father-Daughter Box Supper, spring Mother-Daughter Tea, and Christmas baby blanket project, the Y-Teens sponsored the sales of Christmas bows and Halloween candy bags. Special activities also included a Clothesline Party and Sadie Hawkins Picnic prior to the most gala affair of the year, the Presentation Ball. By combining service projects with enjoyable activities, Y-Teens completed a very successful year.

FCA Links Fellowship to Spiritual Growth

Breaking the monotony of daily calisthenics and constant drills many Wildcat athletes formed the informal religious association, FCA. Various activities of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes such as the March of Dimes and Key-Link provided assorted service opportunities, while all benefited from individual spiritual growth.

Honored Students Spread Springtime Joy

Selected by a faculty council, outstanding students were rewarded for contributions in scholarship, leadership, service, and character by being chosen for the National Honor Society. The new members, selected from the top 15% of the senior class and the top 8% of the junior class, were inducted during an autumn candlelight ceremony. The Country Dinner Playhouse hosted the society's Christmas party and springtime was greeted with the NHS's traditional "Red Carnation Day."

AFS Projects Finance Exchange Students

Hoping to promote international understanding and interest, the Lake Highlands chapter of the American Field Service sponsored Silvia Maeder, a foreign exchange student from Switzerland. Various money-making projects for the year found AFS members peddling student directories and planning the annual Girl's Olympics. Guided by Mrs. Carla Brim, the club also presented several interesting speakers at their Thursday night meetings.

La Petite Sorbonne Adds French Twist

Highlighting the year's activities, La Petite Sorbonne organized the International Dinner which served all LH Foreign language students. Sponsored by Miss Joyce Joslin, the club's monthly meetings included an ice cream party, a fondue party, Christmas caroling, a Mardi Gras party, and a banquet for French honor students. The busy year was climaxed with a traditional dinner held at Mr. Pepe's.

Latins Initiate 'Master vs Slave'

Making Latin mean more than lists of vocabulary words and conjugations, the Latin Club recreated Roman glory for an evening of questionable authenticity and great fun. Besides the Roman Banquet, the group participated in the LH International Dinner and sponsored a Yuletide service project for orphans. The initiation of a master-slave system produced friendly rivalry between Latin classes and set the stage for a revitalized club next year.

German Culture Intrigues Deutscher Verein

German people, their culture, and language dominated Deutscher Verein this year. Sponsored by Mr. Wesley Orr, the German Club highlighted the Christmas season with a spirited party at Skyline. The new year encouraged new members to prepare spicy sausages and potato salad for the school's first international dinner. Then in February, everyone donned colorful costumes and attended the annual Fasching festival. The March spotlight shone on the traditional Tags Convention, followed by an Officer's Dinner. The German Club scrapbook will surely be filled with many remnants of its successful year.

Spanish Club Travels to Mexico

Shades of Mexico remained in LH this year as the Spanish Club engaged in a successful year of activities. Members once again trekked to the PASF convention in San Antonio. Other activities included a trip to the Cine Festival, roller and ice skating parties, a farewell Mexican dinner, and Fiesta de Juego. Sponsored by Mrs. Betty Montgomery, the club strived to develop an understanding of Spanish-speaking peoples and their culture.

Equestrians Promote Riding, Sportsmanship

The LH Equestrians saddled up for the first time this year and joined forces to promote and encourage interest in riding and showmanship. Club activities included participation in horseshoes, hayrides, and special playdays. Sponsors of the new organization were Mrs. Ellen Fleming and Miss Cherri Clack.

Bicycle Fun Lovers Unite on Wheels

Fun comes in all different shapes and sizes, and to some people, it is found on a two-wheeled vehicle with no motor. These people succumbed to today's ideals of going back to nature on ten-speeds, and formed LH's new bicycle club, Free Wheels. Sponsored by Mr. Donald Skaggs, the club met independently to enjoy area sites from their bikes.

Fliers Sponsor Basketball Game

Aviation was the speciality of one of the school's newest clubs, the L.H. Fliers. Under the supervision of sponsor Mr. Don Whitwell, the group took several trips to study the local aircraft industry. The highlight of the club's money-raising activities was a basketball game between the school faculty and the KLIF disc-jockeys.

Drivers Pursue Safe, Sane Habits

The pursuit of safe and sane driving was the major concern of the LH Rallye Club. Sponsored by Mr. Bryant Wolf, the club worked toward this goal by conducting a rallye for the faculty. In addition to weekly meetings, the club's activity calendar also included a special rallye in the spring, which brought their 1971-72 activities to a close.

Outdoor Excursions Beckon Wildlife Members

Members of the LH Wildlife Club explored the out-of-doors through several club projects. Sponsored by Mr. Don Whitwell, Mr. Mike McFarland, and Mr. Jerry Hunt, the club promoted the outdoors through hunting trips. Meetings were held monthly to organize their various expeditions. A raffle with a grand prize of a portable TV climaxed the year.

Ecologists Channel Concern into Action

Cleaning up the LH campus, distributing information on the state of the environment, and participating in the Big Clean-up campaign kept the Lake Highlands Ecology Club and its sponsor, Mr. Bryant Wolf, occupied. Meeting the second and fourth Thursday of each month, the club studied the ways and means of preserving the environment for the betterment of America.

VICA Accomplishes Goals

Preparing its members for the world of work was one of the many accomplishments of the VICA club.

Sponsored by Mr. Jerry Davidson, members attended district meets in Carrollton, Waco, and Dallas. The club, which meets bi-monthly, sponsored an employer-employee banquet in April.

DECA Sparks Interest in Sales

Focusing on marketing and distribution, The Distributive Education Club of America participated in a very prosperous year, highlighted by calendar and candy sales. Other activities included a New Year's Party and an alumni breakfast. Sponsored by Mrs.

Maryetta Reed and Mr. Scott Shepherd, the DECA year was climaxed at the Northeast Texas Area DECA Convention where Gary Wright was named "Student of the Year" and seven LH'ers placed as finalists in state competition.

Chess Club Improves Skills

Cries of "Check" flavored the air at the Chess Club's meetings this year. Sponsored by Mr. James Lively, the club members met on Thursday evenings to exhibit and improve their skill in the game of chess. Closer fellowship was evident as the club members enjoyed various other activities, including ice skating and bowling.

Club Expands Knowledge of Rarities

Entering their second year, the Coin and Stamp club encouraged collectors to expand and improve their interest in constructing their collections. Sponsors Mr. Jess Kirkley and Mr. Tom Whitman aided the group as they increased their knowledge of different types of collections. Special activities included attending area wide coin shows and stamp exhibits.

Scientists Strive To Promote Interest

Striving to promote interest in the field of physics and individual research were goals of this year's Physics Research Order. Sponsored by Mr. Bryant Wolf, the Lake Highlands scientists participated in varied research including the perfection of holograms of three-dimensional photographs.

Mysteries of Math Intrigue Club

Participating in the National Math Test, Mu Alpha Theta members broadened and deepened their interest in Mathematics. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Betty Aday, the club members increased their knowledge of the subject, and passed on to others an appreciation of the values and beauties of mathematics.

Librarians Aid Student Learning

Assisted by an able staff, the LH Librarians provided an invaluable asset to the school by maintaining a center for independent learning. Using the library's facilities for study and research, students worked with the experienced staff to further their education. Although filing, processing, and reshelving books grew tedious on occasions, the library assistants cheerfully managed to keep everything running smoothly and quietly.

Individualism Characterizes Arabesque

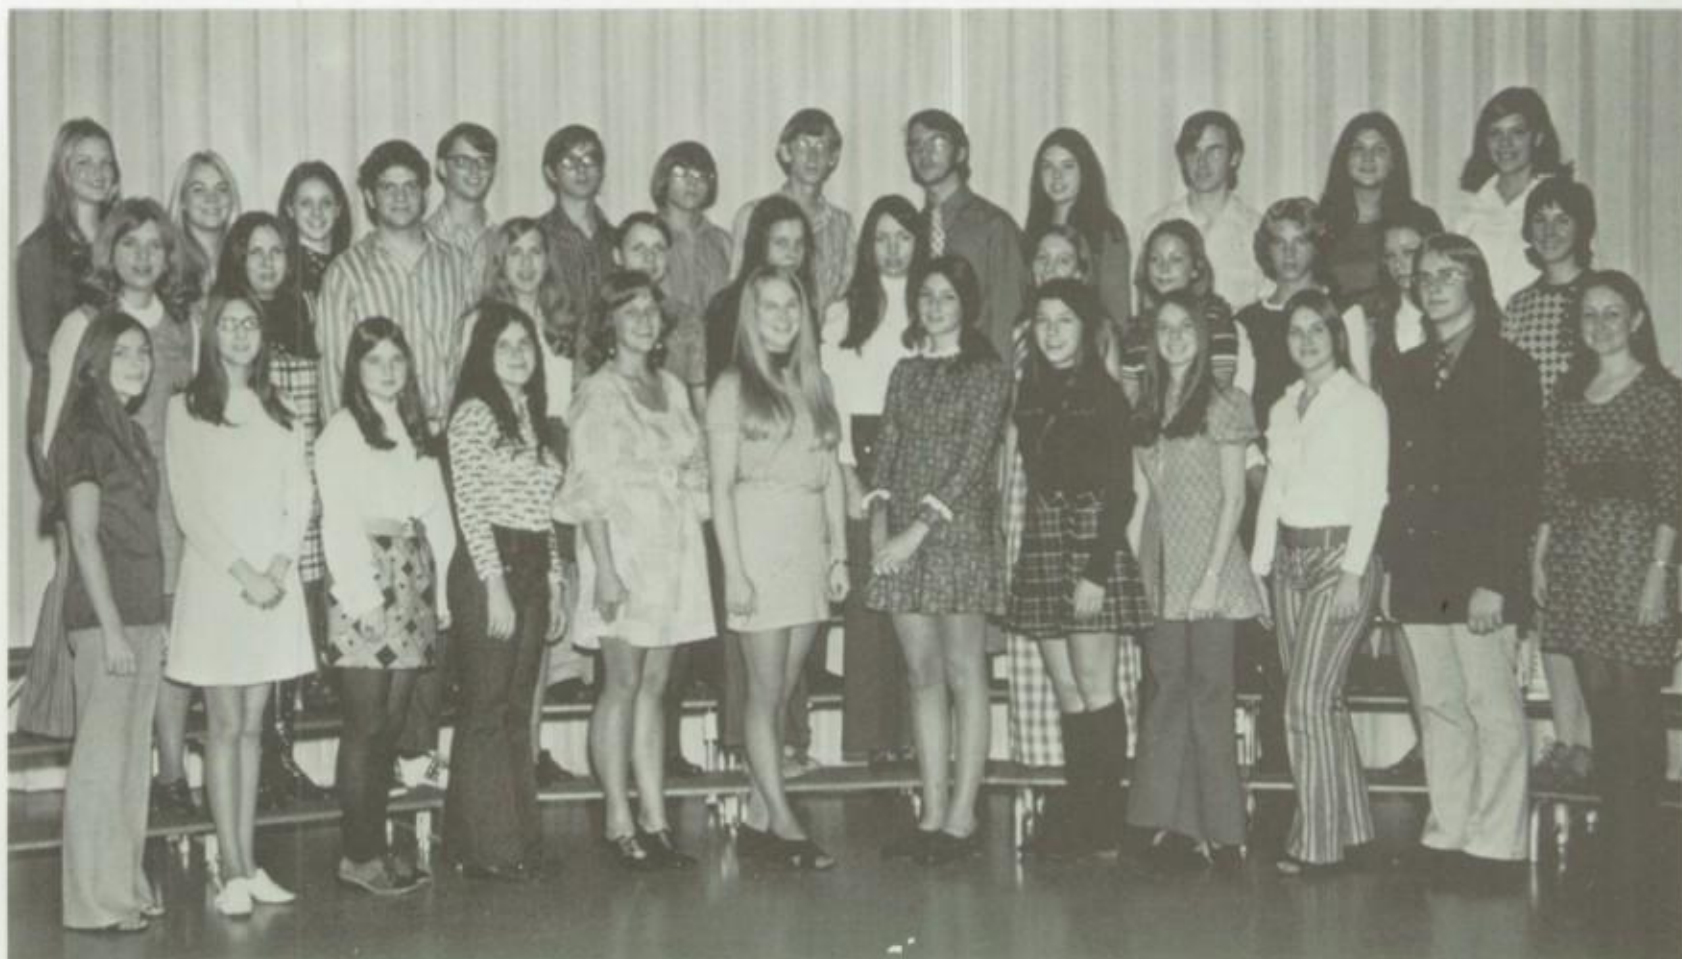

Conducting a full scale exploration into the finer points of the art field, the members of Arabesque visited the Museum of Fine Arts and the Dallas Theater Center. With hopes of developing personal interests and artistic abilities, they also visited a session for blind preschoolers, to see art through their eyes. A spring trip to Six Flags concluded the club's activities. Arabesque was headed by president Betty Whitley and sponsor Mrs. Jeanette Bolding.

Orators Capture Tournament Trophies

For Wildcat orators under the direction of Mrs. Shirley Smith, 1971-1972 was a year of victory. Competing in tournaments throughout the Dallas area, they brought for the first time in LHHS forensic history, sweepstakes trophies. In April, district UIL competition at Sherman climaxed the season, leaving a revitalized and unified speech department in anticipation of next year and the '72-'73 tournament competition.

Dramatists Thrive on Musicals, Contests

After attaining the status of apprentice by enacting a preliminary performance, students interested in theatre began a year of dramatic activities in the Red Masque Society. In cooperation with the choral department, The Red Masque fall production was the musical "The Fantasticks" by Harvey Schmidt and Tom Jones. The year's activities also included going to see "The School for Scandal," "J.B.," and "Lysistrata" at the Dallas Theater Center, a costume-talent party at Christmas, and field trips to tour area theater facilities. Induction ceremonies were held in January for apprentices to become full-fledged members. Sponsored by Miss Nyla Reynolds, a UIL one-act contest play was produced in the spring, and the year was climaxed with the induction of hard-working members into the International Thespian Society, the honorary society for high school dramatists.

Agape Pizza Profits Publication

Although the 1972 Agape staff was small, efforts were combined to develop an outstanding literary magazine. Editors for the '71-'72 school year were seniors Chauncey Nealey and Dee Muesse. Along with Sponsor Mary Ann Runberg, the staff worked hard to publish student's writings. A Pizza Sale in October brought in a large profit and marked the beginnings of the publication.

Author's Bake Sale Raises Dough

Ranking first among Kappa Rho's traditions was its service project for the entire student body was the annual Creative Writing Contest. The 1972 contest boasted cash and achievement certificate awards in eight areas. Winners were announced at the annual Guest Night and received honors in the Awards Assembly in May. The Famous Author's Bake Sale, designed to finance the contest proved to be an effective money maker. The club assumed an active role in promoting county-wide attendance at the Student Poetry Festival during National Poetry Week.

Journalists Report, Record Year

Assigned with the difficulties of summarizing "the year of the Wildcat," the staff of the 1971-72 annual kept busy all year composing layouts and writing copy. Under the enthusiastic sponsorship of Mrs. Cindi Wynne, the students worked with a representative from Taylor Publishing Company to innovate the "One Day Sale" of yearbooks. Co-editors, Jill Zelios and David Pace guided the rest of the staff in writing captions, puzzling over hidden identities, and remaining calm the week before deadlines. Customarily, the worn Wildcat staff distributed the yearbook to the student body in mid-August.

Fang Promotes Awareness, Interest

Working under the pressure of continuous bi-monthly deadlines, the staff of Lake Highlands Fang proved to be industrious and innovative. In an attempt to extend the scope of the traditional student newspaper, the journalists included feature stories and news interpretives on various topics of local and national interest. Sponsored by Mrs. Cindi Wynne, the Fang received varied awards, including an All-Texas rating in the Texas High School Press Association and distinguished Merit honors at the Interscholastic League Press Conference. In the judging of contest entries at THSPA, several Fang staffers, including Darla Faircloth in editorial cartoons and Ellen Myer in interpretive writing, received individual recognition.

Seniors Compile Memories

An anthology of senior witticisms, the senior "Pub" served as a keepsake of anecdotes and humorous quotations contributed by the Class of '72. Working before and after school, 23 staff members typed and edited the submitted phrases under the guidance of Mrs. Toni Biggs. Although the contents, cover, and theme were kept "top secret" until distribution, the efforts and enthusiasm of the staffers assured the success of the 1972 "Pub."

Honorary Society Selects Journalists

Chosen for their various contributions to the newspaper and annual staffs, twenty LH students were named to Quill and Scroll, an honorary journalism society. Senior staffers were honored at mid-term, while juniors were selected in the spring. Celebrating their membership, the aspiring journalists attended a performance at the Country Dinner Playhouse for their initiation ceremonies.

Scuba Club Treks to Mexico

An expedition to Conzumel, Mexico occupied the Scuba Club during spring vacation. The trip highlighted the club's activities which included monthly diving jaunts and bi-monthly meetings. Under the direction of Coach Cullen, members also worked at the Dallas Boat Show in an effort to employ the knowledge they had gained.

Orchestra Entertains, Win Honors

Directed by Mr. Larry Gebhardt, the Lake Highlands Symphony Orchestra participated extensively in competition traveling from Richardson to Corpus Christi. In mid-April, they contended for the fourth time in UIL competition. The Buccaneer Music Festival in Corpus Christi occupied the musicians time throughout the rest of April. To finance the trip they sold fruitcakes and candy bars, a fattening combination.

Concert mistress Irene Baker and violist Kathy

Kemp achieved All-State Youth Orchestra in addition to their All-Region status. Other members who qualified for All-Region were Rena DeShay, Dave Doss, Lisa Hammond, Dodi Keith, and Patti McKay.

The Orchestra also participated in other customary performances, including the December Christmas programs and the Patriotic Assembly. The annual spring concert in May concluded a very rewarding year.

THIS PAGE TOP: Senior and violist Steve Anderson demonstrates the concentration which sent the orchestra to the Corpus Christi music festival.

Musicians' Longtime Dream Comes True

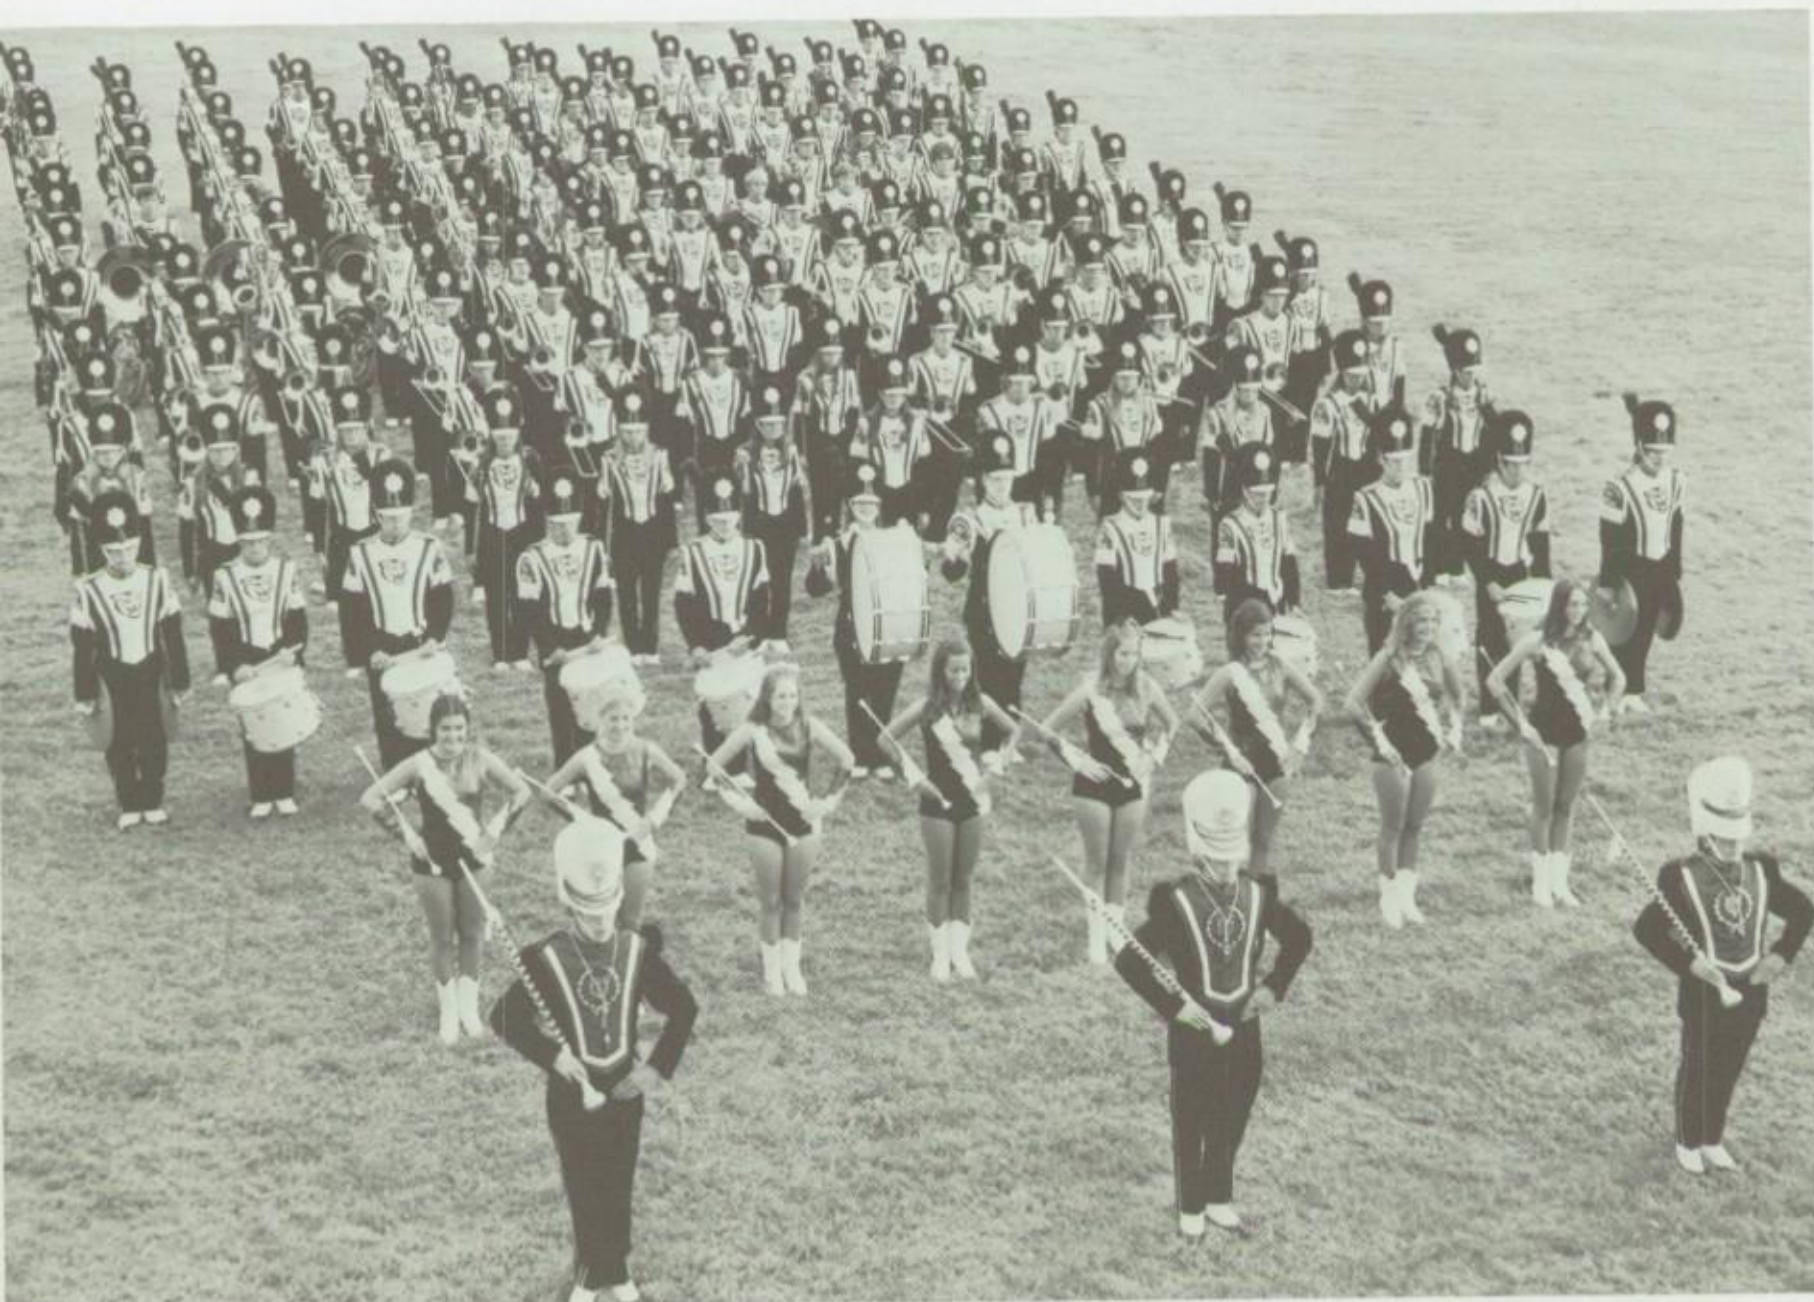

In their second year under director Eddie Green, the Wildcat Band surpassed last year's high achievement record. Last year's dream to attend the Midwest Band Clinic in Chicago finally came true after raising the required $23,000 fee by White Rock North Shopping Center's sponsorship of a huge rummage sale, a detergent sale, and a spaghetti dinner. In the November marching competition, at Mesquite High School, the Wildcat Marching Band achieved a superior rating, competing against other AAAA high schools in the Third Region. March 11 saw the Wildcats participating in UIL Solo and Ensemble competition at Nimitz High School in Irving. Both bands performed at Six Flags Over Texas during the Spring. The band also played in contest at the Ennis Band Festival on March 24. The Concert Band traveled to Corpus Christi and competed in the Buccaneer Music Festival on April 28 and 29.

Cheerleaders Sparkle in Spirit, Fun

Cavorting across the gym or leading student spirit on the football field, the 1971-72 cheerleaders sparked enthusiasm during the "year of the Wildcat." The squad, headed by Carol Egerton and composed of Christi Caldwell, Suzi Scott, Kathy Reed, Paula Palmer, Cam Mullarky, Nina Branin, and Chris Sale, brought home several first place ribbons and the Spirit Stick from SMU's cheerleading school. Keeping LH spirit peaked while Wildcat teams won district and bi-district titles, the cheerleaders also took time to co-sponsor a bake sale for Ruby Davis and participate in the Varsity Revue and Drillteam Spring Show.

Precision, Practice Flavor Year

Clad in flaired skirts and high-topped scarlet hats, the Highlandettes smiled their way through a profitable and rewarding 1971-72 season. Kicking off the year with a debut at the Cowboy game in the Cotton Bowl, the drillteam kept up their enthusiasm throughout the season. Capt. Bev Sutton won the honor of Most Outstanding Girl at the SMU Drillteam School where the girls won first place in the dance division and placed second in marching.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Mary Louise Villeret, the drillteam sold greeting cards during February to buy needed umbrellas. At the same time, they were busy in rehearsal for their annual Spring Show in March. The show, with its nostalgic theme, "This Fabulous Century," was the Highlandette's last public performance during the spectacular 1971-72 year.

Choir Harmonizes Talents, Gain Funds

Draped in full-length red dresses, the Girl's Choir rehearsed, performed, and competed all through the year. Sponsored by Miss Marjean Edgar, both the Girl's and Mixed Choirs peddled boxes of candy to raise needed funds. The singers performed at the Varsity Revue, the Christmas program, and the Patriotic Assembly. On March 24, the choirs competed en masse and individually in Regional Competition.

Madrigals Entertain in Old Style

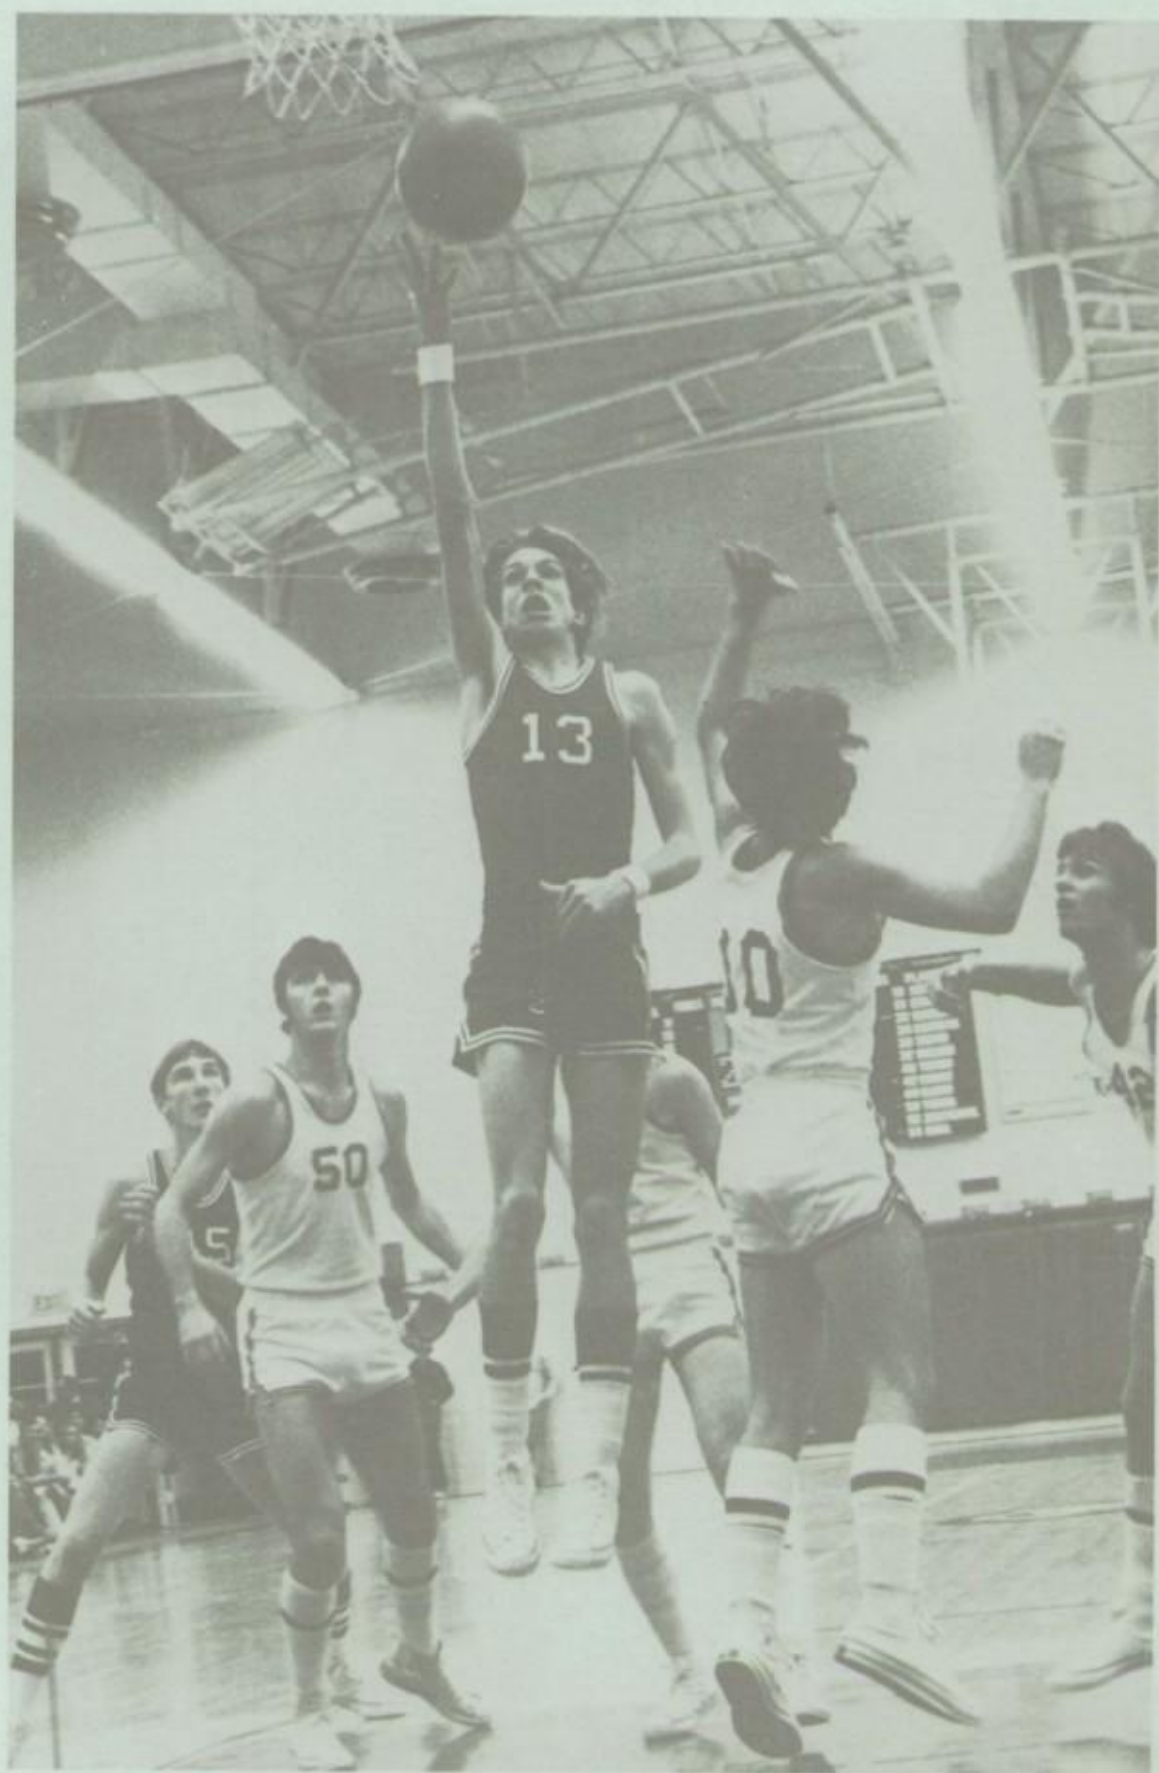

Selected from the Mixed Choir for their outstanding singing ability, the Madrigals performed in the Varsity Revue, the Patriotic Assembly, and the annual Christmas concert. The choir sold candy as their fundraising project in conjunction with the other two choirs. The Madrigals were kept busy rehearsing for singing competition in the spring.

PLAYOFF RECORD

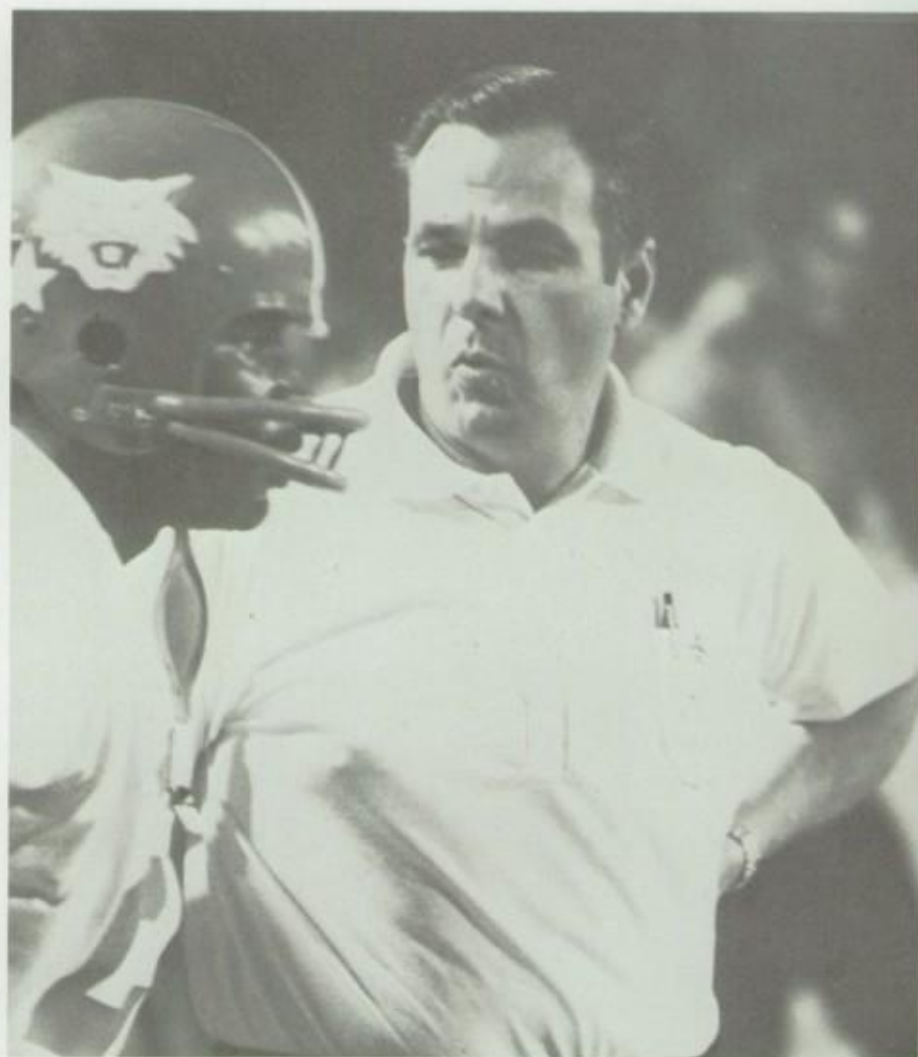

Nacogdoches	6	LH	14

Desire, hard work, and hustle are necessary for a winning football team. In 1971, the Lake Highlands Wildcats possessed these qualities. The season was long and difficult, but they fought it out to the regional playoff. The team members were: Front Row: Ray Carrio, Jerry Hoyt, Brad Salter, Terry Harris, Buddy Maxfield, Mike Hobbs, Bill Pegler, Trent Pearson, and Dennis Damiens. Second Row: Steve Harrington, Nathan Whitener, Buddy Johnson, Mike McKendrick, Robert Hawthorne, Ted Ubben, Steven Spoons, Jim Hazen, Gordon Houston, Cliff Croan, and Robert Holmes. Third Row: Ned Bothe, Jim Casey, Butch Harrell, Larry Jackson, Jim Cowley, Jim Lane, Gary McKenzie, Tim Luther, Kirk Coppedge, and Coach Jay Higgins. Back Row: Coach Sam Austin, Coach Bill Georges, Charles Murphy, Bryan Ottmers, Steve Brown, Jack Crews, Scott Zimmerman, Terry Hawkins, Coach Jacky Russell, and Coach Joe Bob Johnson.

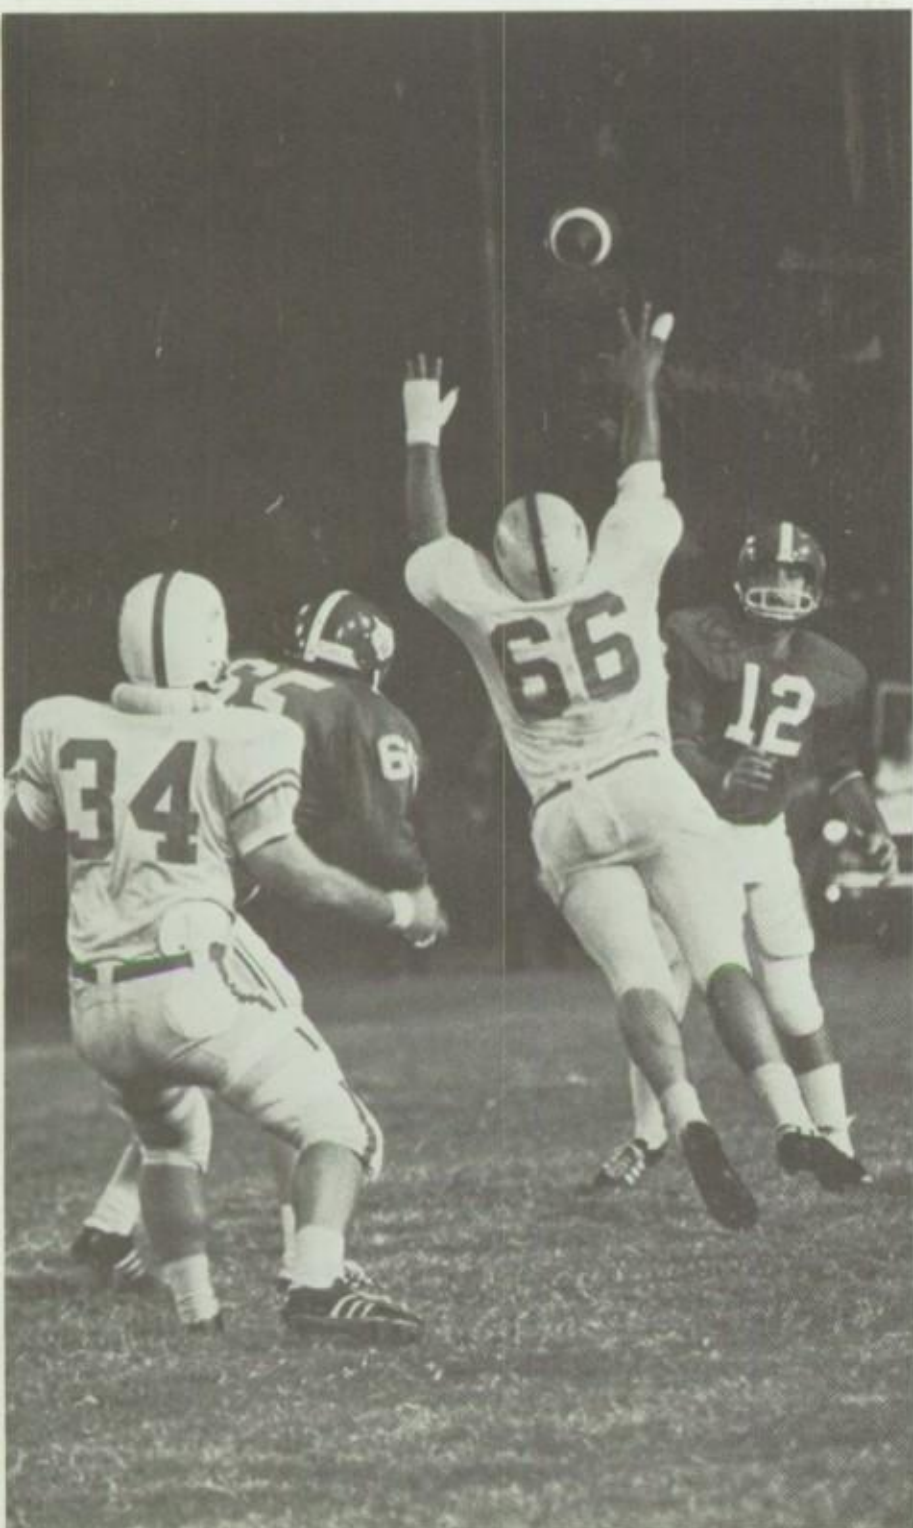

Georges Selected Coach of the Year

Coach Bill Georges — the man with poise, confidence, and contagious enthusiasm for football at Lake Highlands, molded the Wildcats into a championship team. It is only appropriate he was selected as "Coach of the Year" for district 13-AAAA. Other members of the coaching staff furnished top-rate training and strategy planning which helped boost Lake Highlands into the winner's circle.

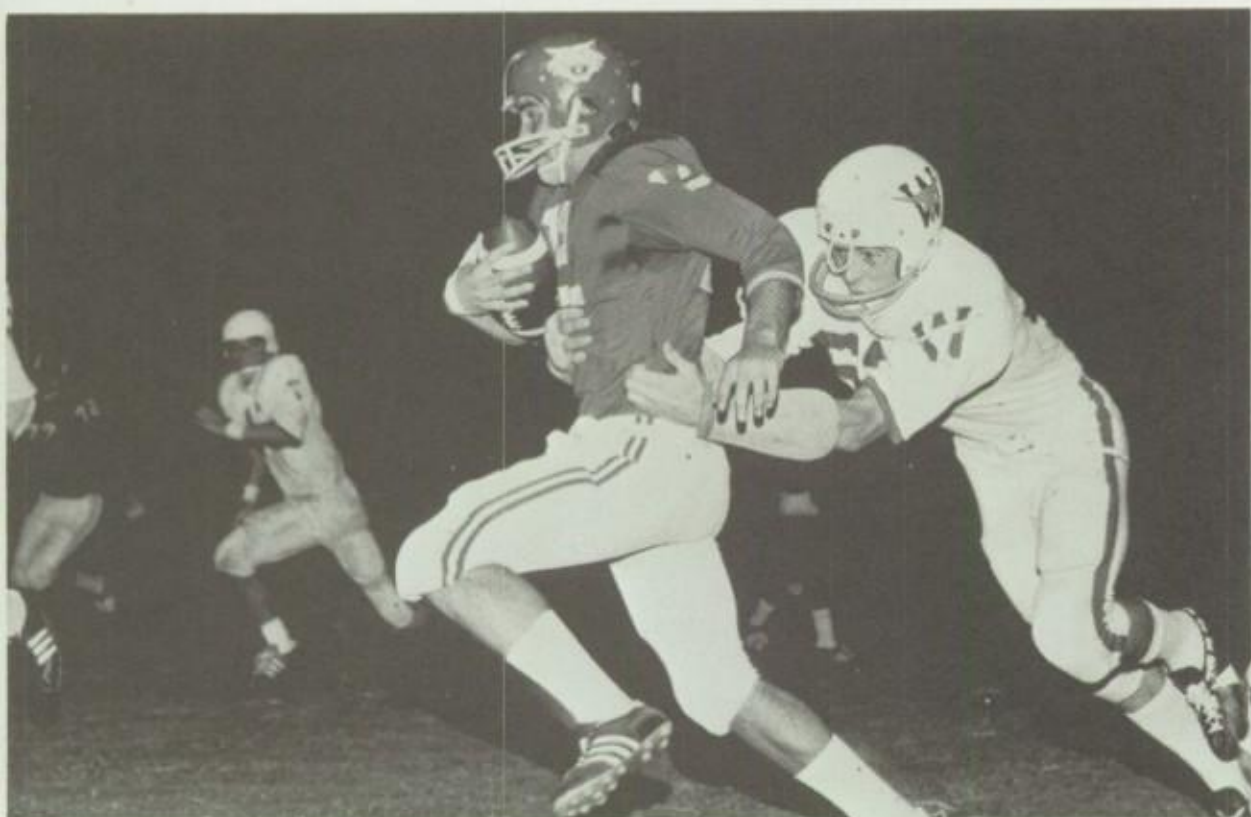

Talented Opponents Test Wildcats

"A learning experience" was how Coach Georges described the Wildcats' 21-20 loss to W. T. White in the season opener. Led by senior quarterback Mike Hobbs, the Cats led by six until the final period when opening night miscues set up the winning Longhorn touchdown and squelched the Wildcat win.

The following Friday, a clutch performance by an awesome Wildcat defensive unit contained the explosiveness of the fleet-footed Tyler Lee Rebels and sparked the Cats to a 9-7 pre-season win at Wildcat Stadium, balancing their record at 1-1.

Cats Open District With Narrow Win

In their final preseason contest, LH and the Highland Park Scotties tangled in rain-soaked, fumble-filled confusion. The hungry Cats never could find the handle and were dealt their second loss.

Quarterback Wayne Mann and the Paris Wildcats threw their best at LH the following week. The explosive power running of Crews and Hawkins tipped the scales in favor of the Highlanders, who won, 20-17.

Whatever embarrassment the Wildcats may have felt in their lackluster showing against Paris, they made up for it tenfold in their contest with Sherman. Hobbs had both guns blazing as LH churned out a stunning 38-14 victory.

Eagles Fall to Determined 'Cats

Homecoming ceremonies made way for a height of action as the unrelenting Wildcats knocked off the Richardson Eagles for the first time in Wildcat history. The Cats forward wall — Casey, Brown, Cowley, Hawthorne, and Whitener — opened the way for another crushing ground attack, as Buddy "the bull" Johnson and the defensive unit staved off the Birds last ditch scoring attempts. The Cats led the district going into their mid-season showdown with South Garland. Charles Hilton and an efficient Colonel team could not be denied though, as the Wildcats suffered their sole district defeat.

Mustang Victory Clinches District Crown

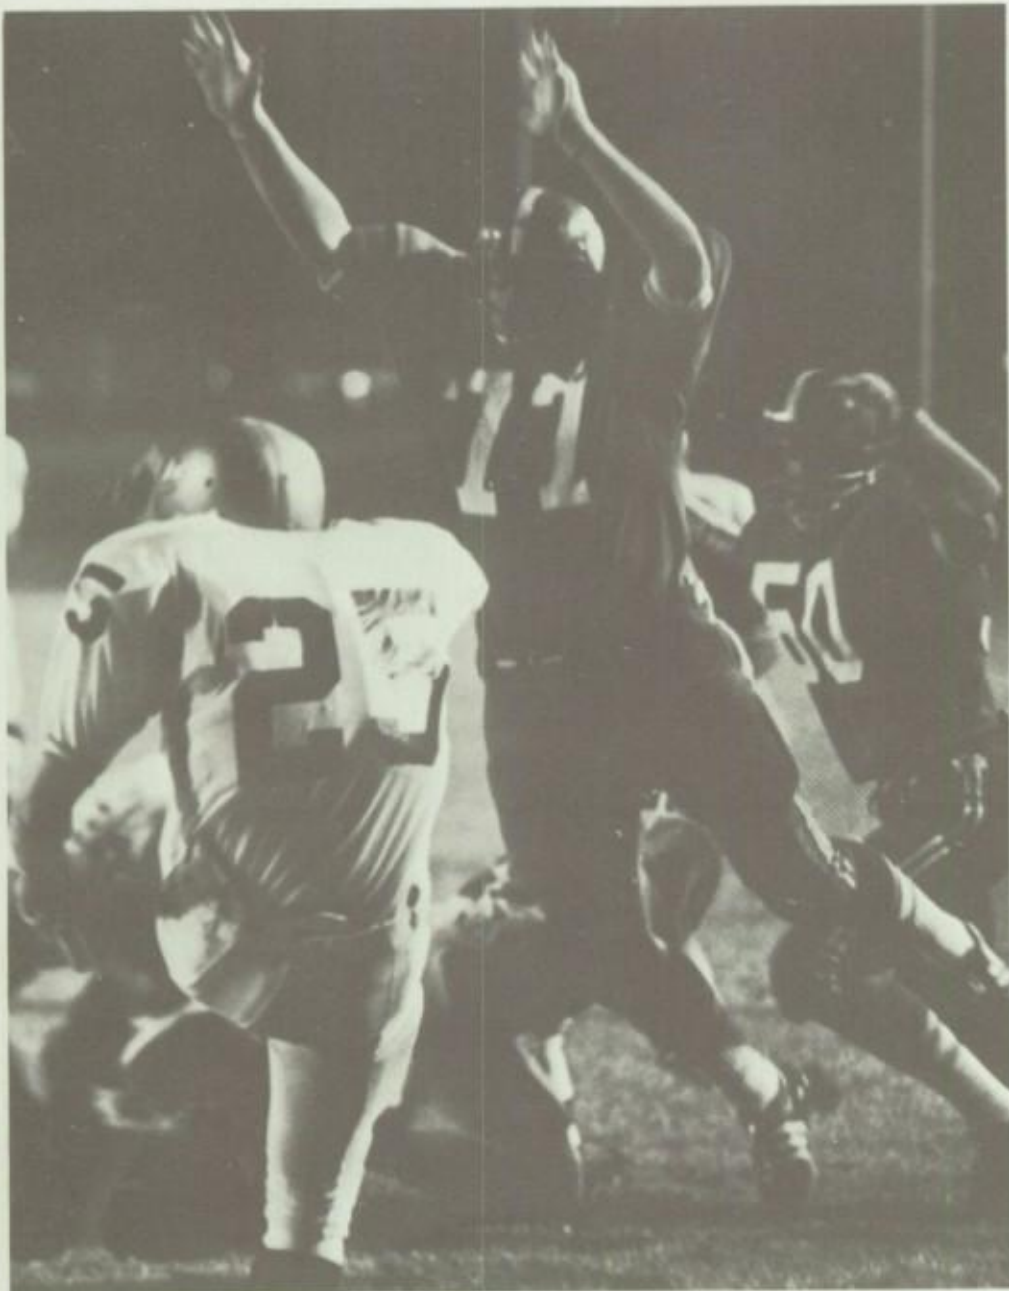

The warriors in red staged a dazzling offensive show in their conquest of the Denison Yellowjackets. Powerhouses Ubben and Coppedge led the ground game while Hobbs and Maxfield sparked the aerial offensive machine with nine strikes on thirteen attempts.

Next, the Wildcats matched their 4-1 record against a determined Greenville Lion team. The going was brutal and tough, as evidenced by injuries to stalwarts Zimmerman, Coppedge, and Harrell. At the final gun neither team was on top as the score stood a disappointing 6-6.

Fierce winds played havoc on the Wildcats and the Pearce Mustangs in the final and most important contest of the regular season. The big plays and razzle-dazzle were missing, but when the smoke cleared, the Wildcats emerged as champions of District 13-AAAA.

Following the game with Pearce and the close of the district season, several Wildcats were honored with the distinction of being named to the all-district team: tackles Steve Brown and Jim Cowley; running back Ted Ubben; linemen Mike McKendrick and Kirk Coppedge; and defensive back Terry Hawkins. Also honored was linebacker Terry Harris who was chosen as Defensive Player of the Year.

Team Effort Thwarted by Kangaroos

Coach Georges confidently and earnestly prepared his Wildcats for the post-season playoffs. The Cats had it all — a solid passing game, beefy linemen, an experienced defense, place kicking ability, and team spirit.

The coaches' philosophy was to stick it out with the basic power attack and rely on the defense to play for the breaks. Nacogdoches was the first to put these ideas to the test. Against the Dragons everything clicked and Lake Highlands was on the move. The defensive front four kept the Dragons shaken up by applying a tremendous rush. On the ground, Ubben and Hawkins blazed 235 yards with the help of near-perfect blocking execution. Hobbs kept up the pace by drilling eight of fifteen aerials into the enemy secondary. At the final gun, the Cats led 14-6 and Lake Highlands Stadium erupted.

Baylor Stadium was selected as the battleground for the Cats' regional showdown with Killeen. The Highlanders gave their best effort, but soon learned why the Kangaroos were ranked seventh in the State. The Killeen rushing attack was powerful and devastating, running over the LH defenses for 377 yards. Big Red's offensive machine had its bright moments, but it, too, was forced to succumb as a truly championship team bumped the Cats from the playoffs.

Suddenly the 1971 football season was over, but not in the memories of those who were close to it, for the Lake Highlands Wildcats were able to earn a respected reputation for both themselves and the school.

Cubs Maintain Respectable Season

Individual talent and inspired teamwork boosted the 1971 Junior Varsity Cubs to a respectable 4-4-1 season record. Members of the team were: Front Row: Bill Flook, Frank Zieler, Kent Pride, James Liles, Stuart Wainscott, Terry Minton, and Richard Hailey. Second Row: Klyde Houston, Larry Adelstein, Bobby Wilson, Jeff Teasley, Mack Long, Jim Rodgerson, Chris Redwine, Allen Scott, Homer Turner, and Greg Hanson. Third Row: Coach Tommy Wade, Bobby Sherman, Danny Koons, John Myers, Steve Spoons, Bob Wade, Kenneth Briggs, Ray Fendley, Randy Moore, and Coach Charles Sterling. Back Row: Kim Terrell, Jeff Hill, Keith Nickerson, Larry Williams, Russ Willis, Brad Travis, Pat Anderson, Mark Goldsmith, Jon Hall, and Kirby White.

'Kits Efforts Yield 3-7 Season Record

Roundballers Capture District Crown

Sporting a 12-7 record the Cats made an impressive pre-season showing. But it became evident that LH would have to become more consistent winners if they hoped to capture the District Crown. Richardson and South Garland proved to be the biggest threats to LH but as the season progressed, the Wildcats improved. Archrival Richardson was unable to defeat the LH Roundballers, while South Garland dealt the Cats their only district loss. The year ended in a disappointing Bi-District loss to Nacogdoches, with a score of 44-46.

Kits Close Season, 6-5

The Lake Highlands B-team pressed their way to an 8-3 pre-season mark. As pre-season came to a close, 6'6" sophomore Jim Sperring was elevated to the Varsity. This proved to be a critical blow to the Wildkits bid for the District Crown. Brian Holme and Rick Hornburg were the "Kits" leading point producers with 16.0 and 14.6 scoring averages respectively. When all the dust had cleared the Wildkits were in the third place spot with a district record of seven wins and seven losses. The members of the 1971-72 Wildkit team were: Front Row: Mack Dryden, Terry Leonard, Eddie Atwood, Wally Hughey, and Mike Stewart. Second Row: Mike Smith, Derek Massey, Charles Avant, and Tom Clark. Back Row: Doug Zimmerman, Buddy Goode, Jim Sperring, Rick Hornburg, and Coach Charles Sterling.

Swim Team Participates in Statewide Meets

Loaded with swimming talent, the boys' varsity was able to register outstanding times in season meets with Jesuit and St. Marks. At the close of their season, good performances at U.T.A. gave them a high place among regional competition. Swimmers on the 1971-72 varsity team were: Front Row: Alfred Newman, Richard Jondron, Greg Dannemiller, Joe Russell, and Joe Dannemiller. Second Row: Jeff Jones, Les Moreland, Bruce Riggs, Bryan Brown, and Allen Hamilton. Back Row: Jeff Young, Steve Sitton, Gary Powell, and Wayne Carroll.

The girls' varsity had a disappointing swim season; however, impressive showings in freestyle and distance events made them a team to be reckoned with. The team members included: Front Row: Mary Hudel, Linda Mayer, Debbie Lawson, Mary Adamson, and Laurisa Woodson. Back Row: Kathleen Thompson, Nan Mitchell, Leslie Coulter, Susan Lawson, Melissa El-lard, and Carol Baxter.

OPPOSITE PAGE: Standout scorers Doak Jones and Bill Pegler combine to make Lake Highlands soccer fast and exciting.

Soccer's First Year Proves Exciting

Fighting preseason forecasts for fifth and sixth place, the inexperienced Wildcat soccer team climbed to within two points of third place and ended with a winning season in its initial competition. Highlighting the season was a scoreless tie with highly favored Garland, a post-season 1-1 tie with Eastfield Junior College, and a 4-2 victory over Richardson.

Named to the Northern District All-Star team were Tom Jarmon, Bob Wade, Bill Peglar, and Tom

Baseball Defensive Battle Tough Foes

Strong pitching and outfield hustle carried the agile Wildcat baseballers through a difficult pre-season schedule to an 8-10-0 record. Upon entering district play, lack of hits at opportune times proved costly, while the defense held its own. Things looked encouraging as the underrated Cats entered the second half of the season tied for 2nd with Pearce. Players on the team were: Front Row: Craig Sorrels, Mike Orr, John Alloway, Steve Short, Fernando Ruiz, and Mike Stewart. Second Row: Bart McCain, Rohn Campbell, Dale Flockerzy, Alan Alig, Robert Hardin, and Mike Smith. Back Row: Coach Jay Higgins, Steve Kinney, Tim Luther, Ed Umbrecht, Mark Houck, Terry Hawkins, and Kevin May.

Lake Highlands' B-team lacked the experience this year to challenge for a district title spot. However, through teamwork they were able to put together a .500 season. Those who played were: Front Row: David Tyree, Tim O'Neal, Brian Kingsley, Danny Vincent, Danny Seed, and Doug Schultz. Second Row: Frank Morgan, Larry Hughey, Gary Sutton, Chris Hansen, John Martin, and Dennis Bardin. Back Row: Paul Grabsky, Steve Frazier, John Morrow, Andy Stepchinsky, and Mike Casaday.

Tracksters Hurdle Through Season

Individual efforts are combined to make track and field a team sport. Numerous stellar athletes contributed enough this year to make Lake Highlands a respected threat in district as well as state competition. Tracksters for the season included: Front Row: Kevin Dawkins, Greg Harker, Blake Burleson, Buddy Maxfield, Glenn Garrett, Steve Cumella, and Ross Gilson. Second Row: Bruce Liggitt, Mike Luther, Ken Briggs, Kim Terrell, Denny Clark, Bob Callaway, Wes Jost, Jeff Gilson, Ray Carrio, Erik Marshall, and Grant Gealy. Third Row: Wayne Fleming, Mark Stamm, Kenny Robison, John Burrow, Garrett Smith, Bryan Ottmers, Scott Zimmerman, David Sissom, Mike McKendrick, Brooks Purnell, and Bernard Reingold. Back Row: Curt Freeman, Kevin McGinnis, Gary Wilson, George Hill, Jim Casey, Bruce Lattimer, Jack Crews, Charles Murphy, Ben Lyle, Ross Alexander, and Barry Howell.

Fem Tracksters Tie for District Place

Winning meet after meet, the girls' track team zipped through one of their finest seasons. Led by jumpers, Pearson, Yancy, and Mullens — the field events specialists earned their share of first place victories. The outstanding distance running of Wadley, Edwards, and Wozencraft was enough to put the team in contention for the District title. Those who made up this year's team were: Front Row: Kathy Wiles, Alice Griffiee, Barbara Edwards, Barbara Johnson, Margie Childress, and Carol Wilson. Second Row: Vicki Traylor, Carole Johnson, Pam Patterson, Vicki Mullens, Sandy Jones, Kim Wozencraft, and Linda Wadley. Back Row: Clytie Daniel, Susan Bean, Denise Pearson, Jennifer Means, Pat Yancy, Jan Feltman, and Silvia Maeder.

Golfers Score High in Major Tournaments

Golf at Lake Highlands had been almost unnoticeable until this year when Coach Jeff Kane acquired the personnel to make his team competitive. The "Swingers" began their practice in September and progressed through the season, scoring admirably in major tournaments at Fort Worth, Killeen, and A&M. With several victories against major district foes under their belts, they were classed as favorites for the district tournament. Golfers for the 1971-72 season were: Front Row: Steve Brown, Doug Heruska, John Camp, Jim Parrish, and Randy Ford. Back Row: Jeff Slator, Alan Bruce, Roy Jackson, Kerry Rosfeld, and Bob Neal.

Racketeers Gain Noted Recognition

Victories scored in invitationals against such notables as Garland, R. L. Turner, and L. D. Bell enabled the LH tennis team to gain high regard from district competitors. Those racketeers who put together a season of exciting tennis action were: Front Row: Paul Behne, Lisa Risener, Carla Haynes, Denise Wade, and Stan Patterson. Back Row: Keith Roberts, Suzanne Osborne, Aileen North, Judy Lowe, and Dennis Davidson. Not Pictured: Steve Heimberg, John Hatfield, and Bill Maynard.

Lake Highlands' wrestling team closed out its second season with an outstanding record of 7 wins and 5 losses. Highlighting the year's events were invitational meets both here and in Oklahoma, as well as the state contest in Amarillo. Those competing this season were: Front Row: Mark Schiedermayer, David Tyree, Bill Dean, Gary White, Mike Lamar, and Dennis Eubank. Back Row: Coach Robert Harris, Gary Seville, Frank Zeiler, Richard Morrison, Mike McGinnis, Mike Easley, Craig Stout, Ted Ubben, Mike McKendrick, Dick Craft, and Robert Creamer.

Enthusiasm Sparks Intramurals Program

Climaxing the season's sports activities was the first Lake Highlands intramurals program. Round robin basketball competition in both boys and girls divisions kicked off the schedule with volleyball action following in the spring. Deemed a success by players and sponsors alike, the program is sure to become an LH tradition.

Staff and Students Combine Efforts

Outstanding academic and extra-curricular achievement at Lake Highlands this year was a result of the combined efforts of the faculty and students. A capable administration complemented these efforts and helped develop the potential of all LH'ers. The dedication of Principal A. M. Anderson and assistant Principals Jerry Green, Tom Whitman, and Mike Ogg, provided the framework around which a successful '72 was built.

Student ID's Introduced

Adding to the annual "fall flurry" of activity this year was the monumental task of photographing and distributing identification cards to members of LH faculty and student body.

Under direction of Principals Jerry Green, Tom Whitman, and Mike Ogg, everyone with a social security number was photographed and issued an ID card complete with name, classification, and birthdate.

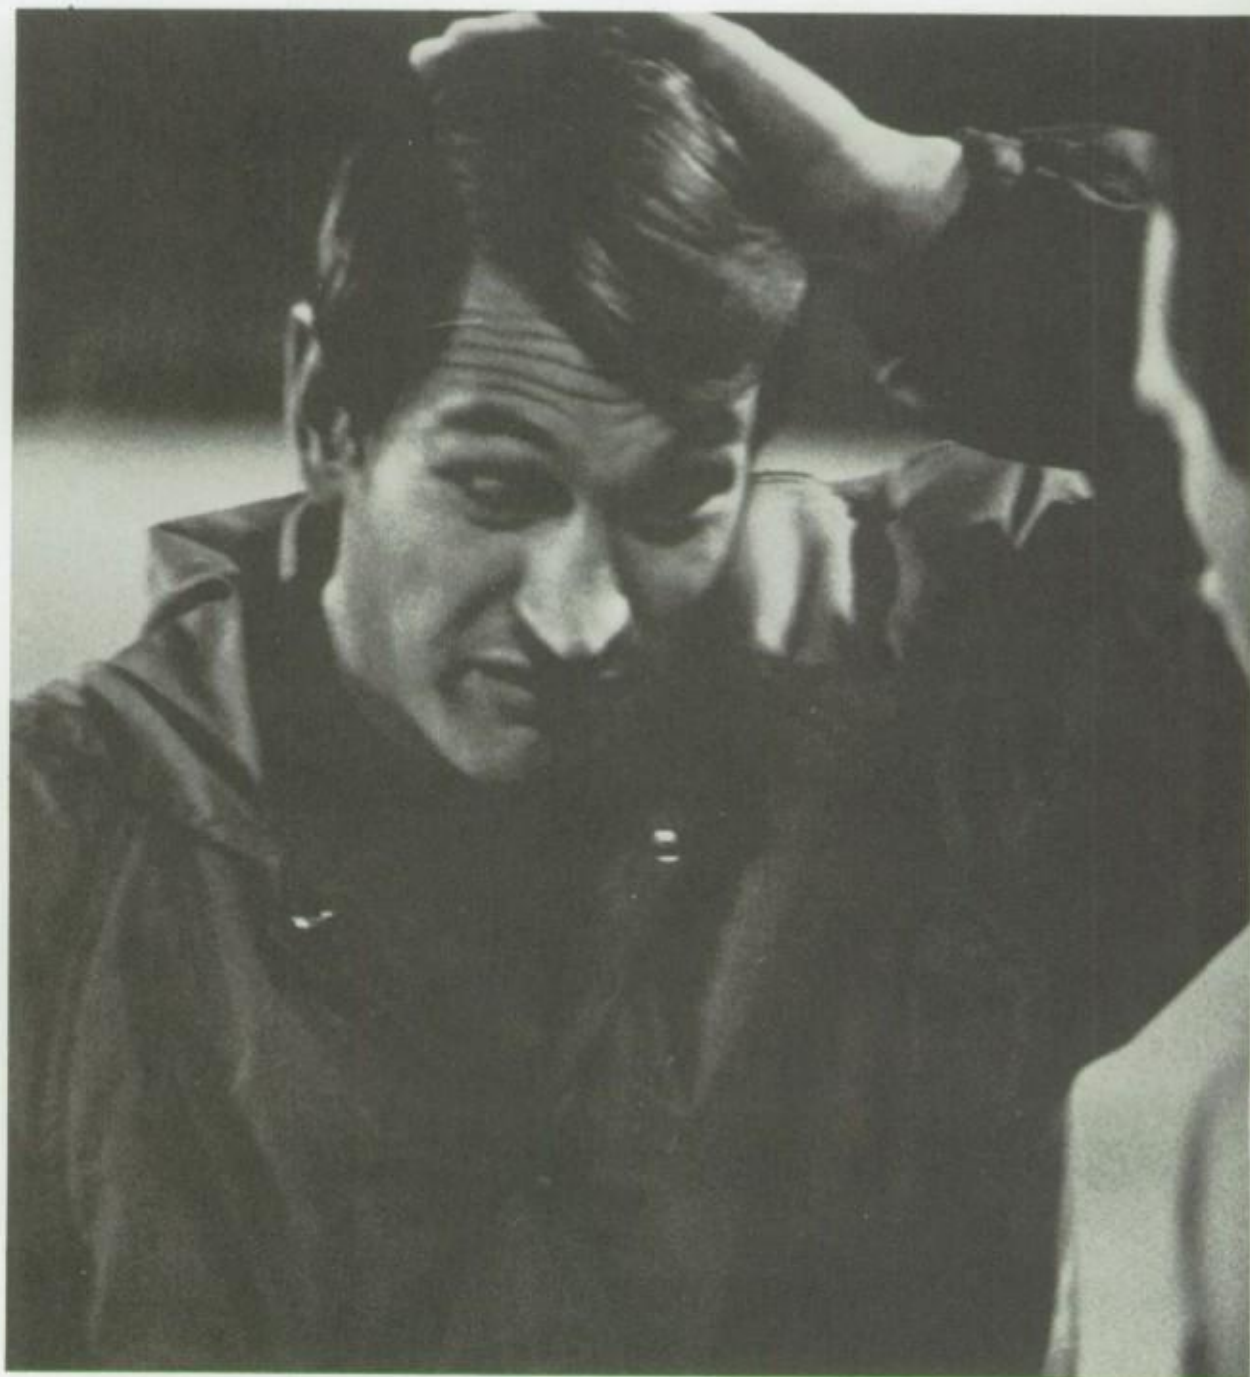

The cards' purpose was to be used in obtaining library cards, admittance into school functions, and reducing the need for teachers to constantly write passes.

Classes

Senior Innovation Proves Beneficial

The spirited class of '72 consolidated tradition and innovation this year by participating in such time-honored customs as Homecoming and yet setting their own trends with the Senior Board of Directors and the Dessert Social. In an attempt to boost Wildcat enthusiasm, seniors also worked to federate the sophomores and juniors in spirit competition. Participation in the AFS Olympics, various dramatic presentations, and Student Council activities supplemented a year of ardent involvement for the upperclassmen. The class of '72 found capable leadership in officers Kim Dinsmoor, president; Peggy Osterholm, representative; Joyce Tackett, secretary; Claudia Loy, reporter; and David Schara, vice-president.

Necessary Funds Achieved

By amassing a considerable reserve during their junior year, the Class of '72 simplified money matters for itself and needed only the Dessert Social to earn the necessary funds for their May festivities. Seniors worked with the Prom and the All-Night Party foremost in their minds, but gained practical experience and, more important, friendship and class unity in the money-making process.

Juniors Exhibit High Potential

In the fall of 1970, some 400 innocent, wide-eyed ninth graders shuffled over to the bottom of the class ladder at Lake Highlands High School and looked upwards in awe. During their sophomore year, the Class of '73 seemed to remain in a bewildered trance, with a single Chili Dinner to their credit. But the fall of '71 saw a rejuvenation of class spirit as new officers were elected and new ideas were introduced. The Christmas candle sale added a thousand dollar sum to the class treasury and class spirit soared on through the year from the "traditional few" who repeatedly run for class office, the Junior Class was rewarded by a group of officers who enthusiastically led the class of '73 in a successful year. Elected officers were Mark Roman, president; Jeff Owens, vice-president; Sharon Young, secretary; Terry Stanford, reporter; and Chris Sale, representative. Increased involvement and enthusiasm contributed greatly to the year's success, scholastically, physically and personally.

Sophs Display Money-Making Talents

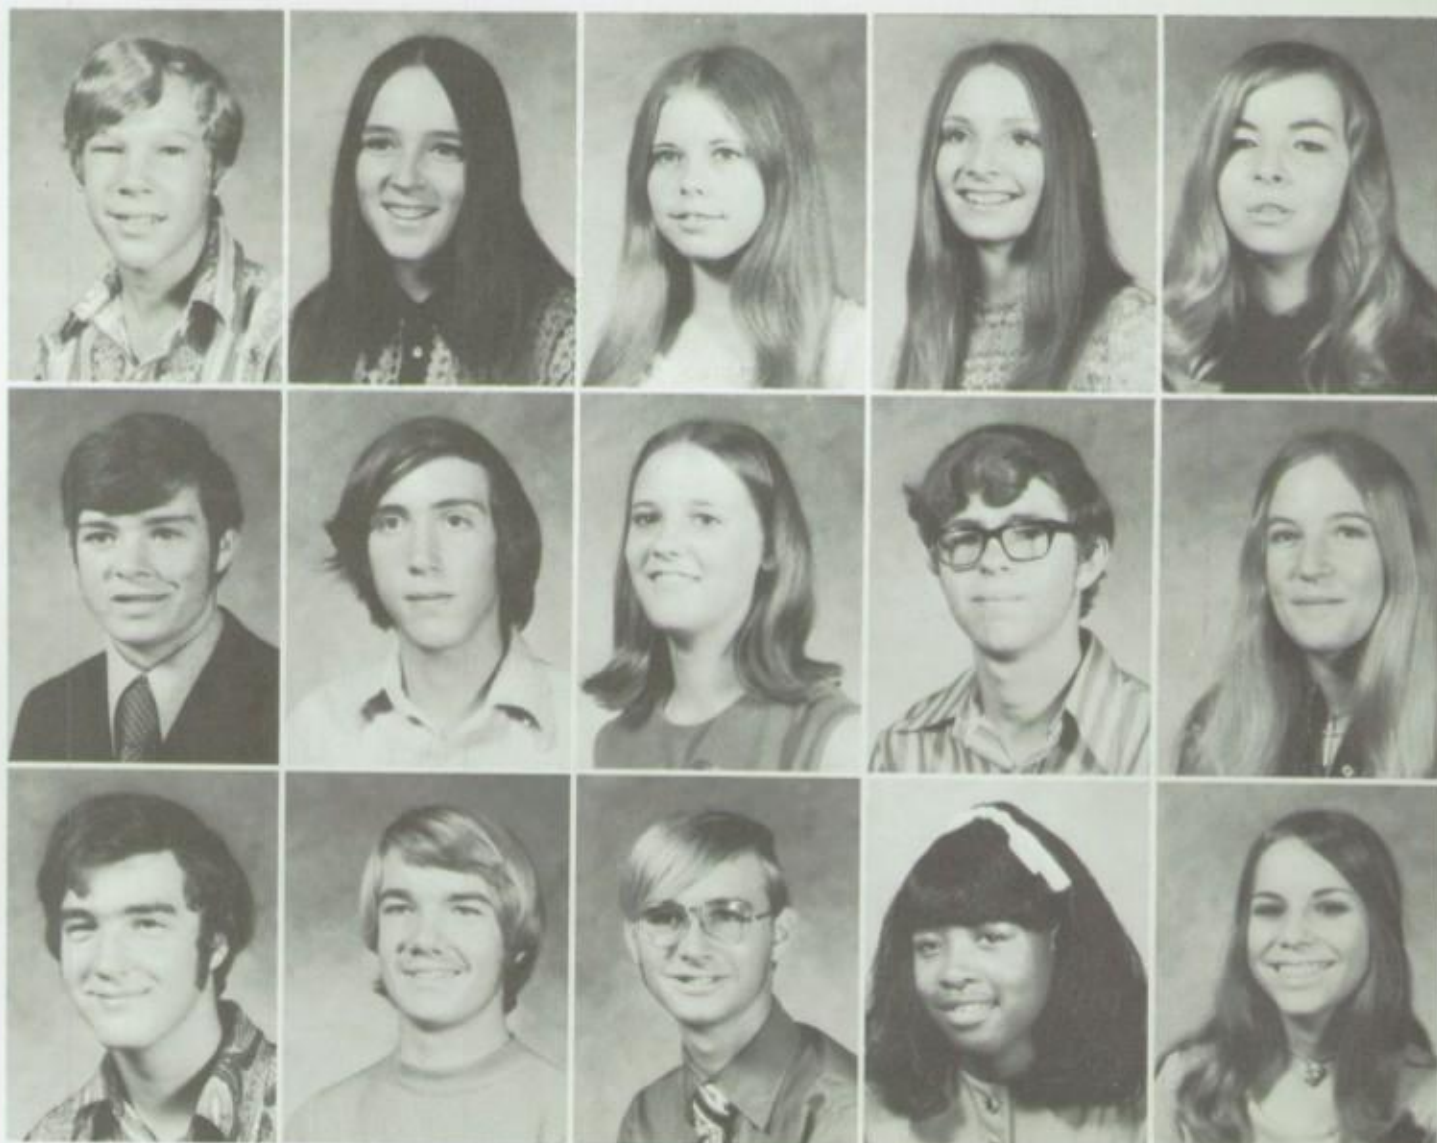

From their very first dazed, confused, and whimsical moments at LH, the class of 1974 proved to be unique in every way. Established as the largest tenth grade class ever, the dynamic group proved their superiority to previous sophomores by becoming the most financially profitable sophomore class in LH history. Led by five female officers, Delia Pace, president; Sherri Turner, vice-president; Linda McClung, secretary-treasurer; Patty Osterholm, reporter; Nora Mullarky, representative, the seven hundred and forty students happily pocketed an excess of $1500 into their treasury. Commencing with an ever-popular bake sale, the class sped through the year adding a Pancake Dinner, toothbrush sale, and a second bake sale to their list of financial accomplishments.

Juniors Establish Financial Success

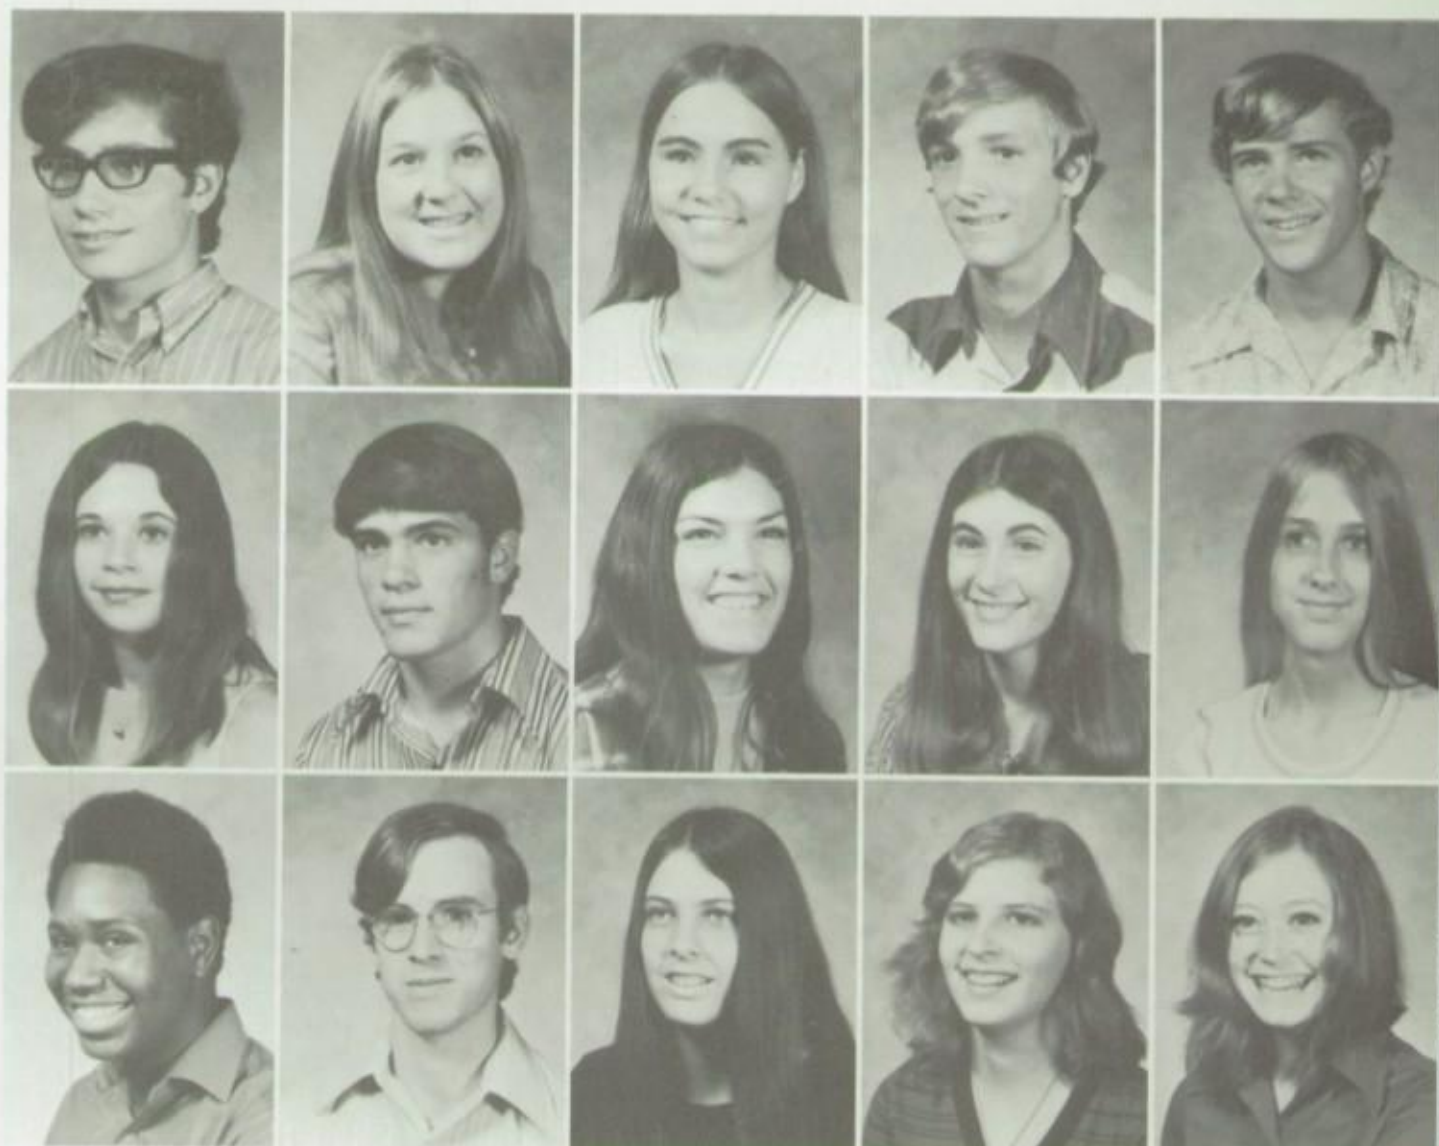

No toothbrushes invaded the junior class agenda this year, and the major emphasis was more on fun projects than exhaustingly diligent money-making campaigns. And though the year of '71-'72 was financially successful, the juniors remained void of dollar fanatic symptoms and miserly tendencies. Never before in the history of the LH junior classes has there been such unusual sales as plastic lawn bags, or flaky Christmas candles. Though the class officers were skeptical of their success, the candles added a tidy $1100 to the class treasury, despite twenty-three "last calls" for candle pick-up. This year always found the juniors amidst either money, products, or bills, and at times, all three. But, in the final count, all obligations were met, all bills and commitments were dealt with, and the class of '73's financial books finally closed with a decidedly large improvement.

Sophomores Aims Fulfilled

Despite the all-female governing body, organization and equal representation of everyone's wishes were of the utmost concern. Though the year was a financial success, the classes' first aim was toward "fun stuff." After the maddening mishaps of the prolific toothbrush sale it became increasingly apparent that the sophomores were not primarily interested in money, but rather in enjoying themselves. Strictly for their own enjoyment, the fun-loving group aspired to produce a movie but without administrative backing it proved impossible. Looking ahead, these underclassmen have two more years in which to live up to this first year's overwhelming prosperity.

Pre-Employment Sponsors Gift Boutique

Lake Highlands offered industrious students a chance to combine classroom and on-the-job educations in a new Coordinated Vocational Academic Education. In addition to vocational training, a Pre-Employment course let juniors and sophomores learn job-oriented skills before their actual employment, and gave seniors the added advantage of a Pre-Employment laboratory. After an hour of classroom instruction similar to the sophomore-junior Pre-Employment classes, the upperclassmen spent a second hour in a lab at school. Teachers, employers, and students all benefited from the practicality of experience prior to employment.

In Memory of Gail Reed

While another year revolved into the frosted silence of the Past, the world had an opportunity to look back at yesterday and into the promise of tomorrow. As the long tentacles of communication enveloped virtually the entire globe, we became unavoidably aware of both disquieting and promising events at home and in other lands.

On the Emerald Isle, a long-smoldering argument between two Christian peoples once again flared into sniper fire and arson. Although troubled scientists published grave predictions of world starvation, the world's birthrate continued to climb, unabated. In the land of the free and the brave, revelations of numerous political scandals fostered mistrust in our leaders and our system. And beneath the shadow of an atomic cloud, the Jews and Arabs remained locked in a dispute that threatened to lure the super powers into an all-destructive confrontation.

Against this sea of violence and mistrust, however, stood several bright beacons which offered hope to even the most pessimistic observer. President Nixon's sojourn to the People's Republic of China promised to help crumble the wall which has blocked reciprocal communication for decades. A new determination on the part of young people to work within "the system" helped to bridge the gap that separated the two generations during the 60's. A new religious Renaissance among the young and old alike focused national attention upon brotherhood instead of bigotry. And, hoping to find novel solutions to age-old problems, dedicated scientists and technologists intensified their search of both the microscopic and telescopic.

Through a myriad of personal and interpersonal relationships, we have hopefully added not only to our years but also to our wisdom and experience. Only by looking into ourselves and our brothers can we fit this wisdom and experience into the puzzle of world peace and understanding.

*"We are a part of the fire that is burning . . .
From the ashes we can build another day."*

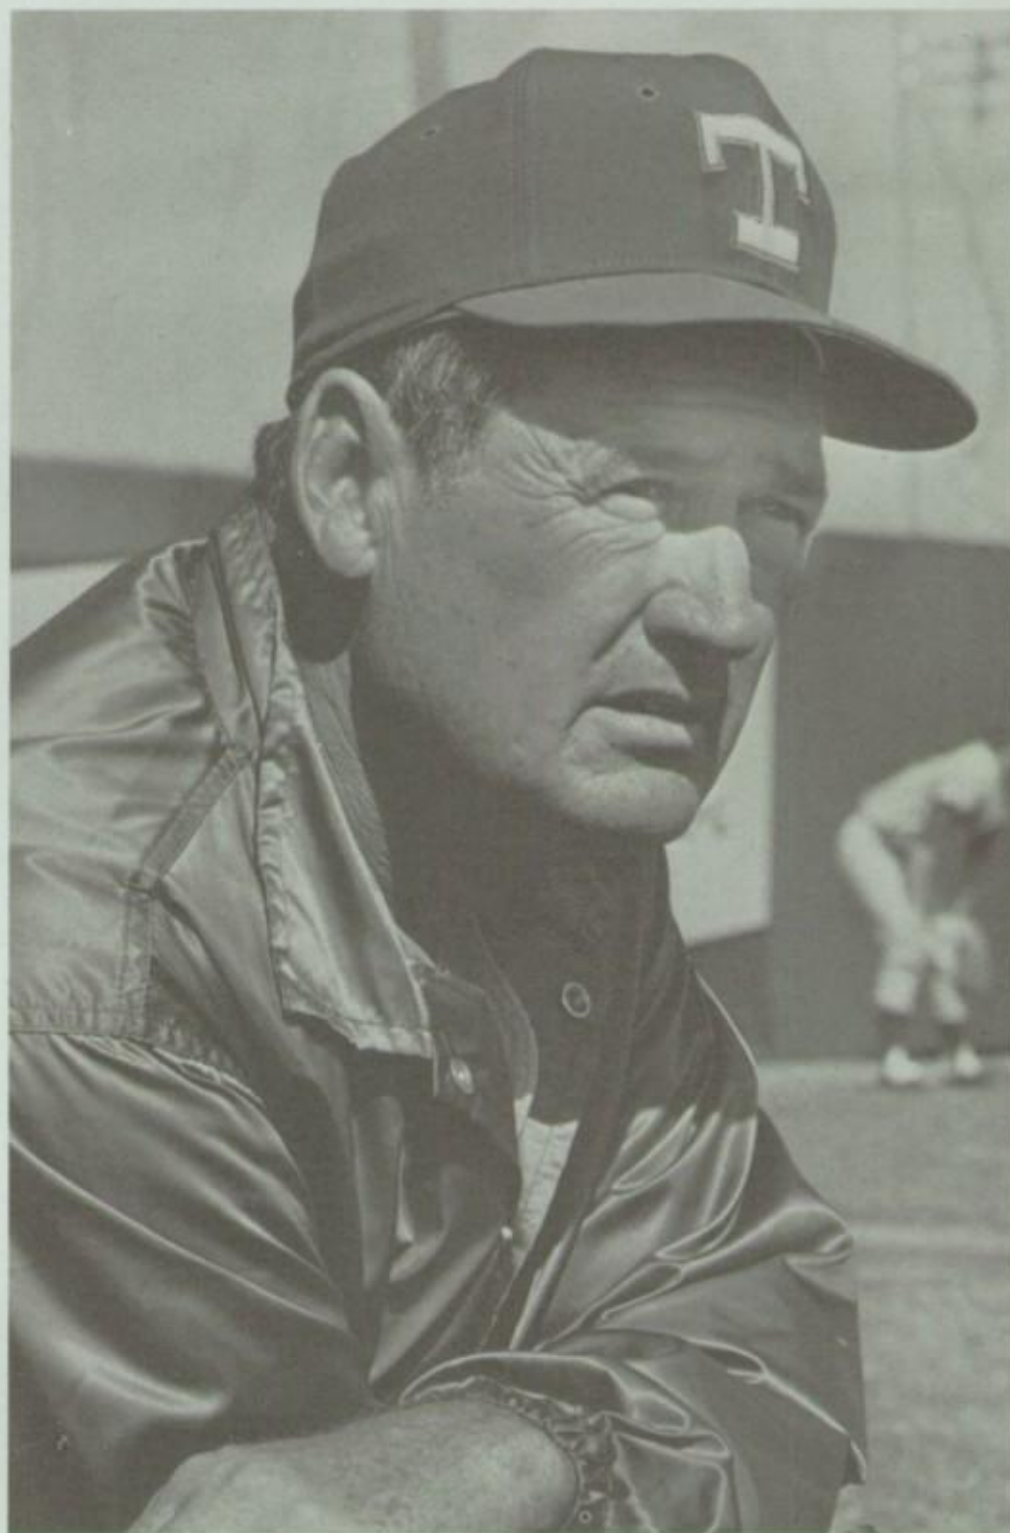

— Keith Prim

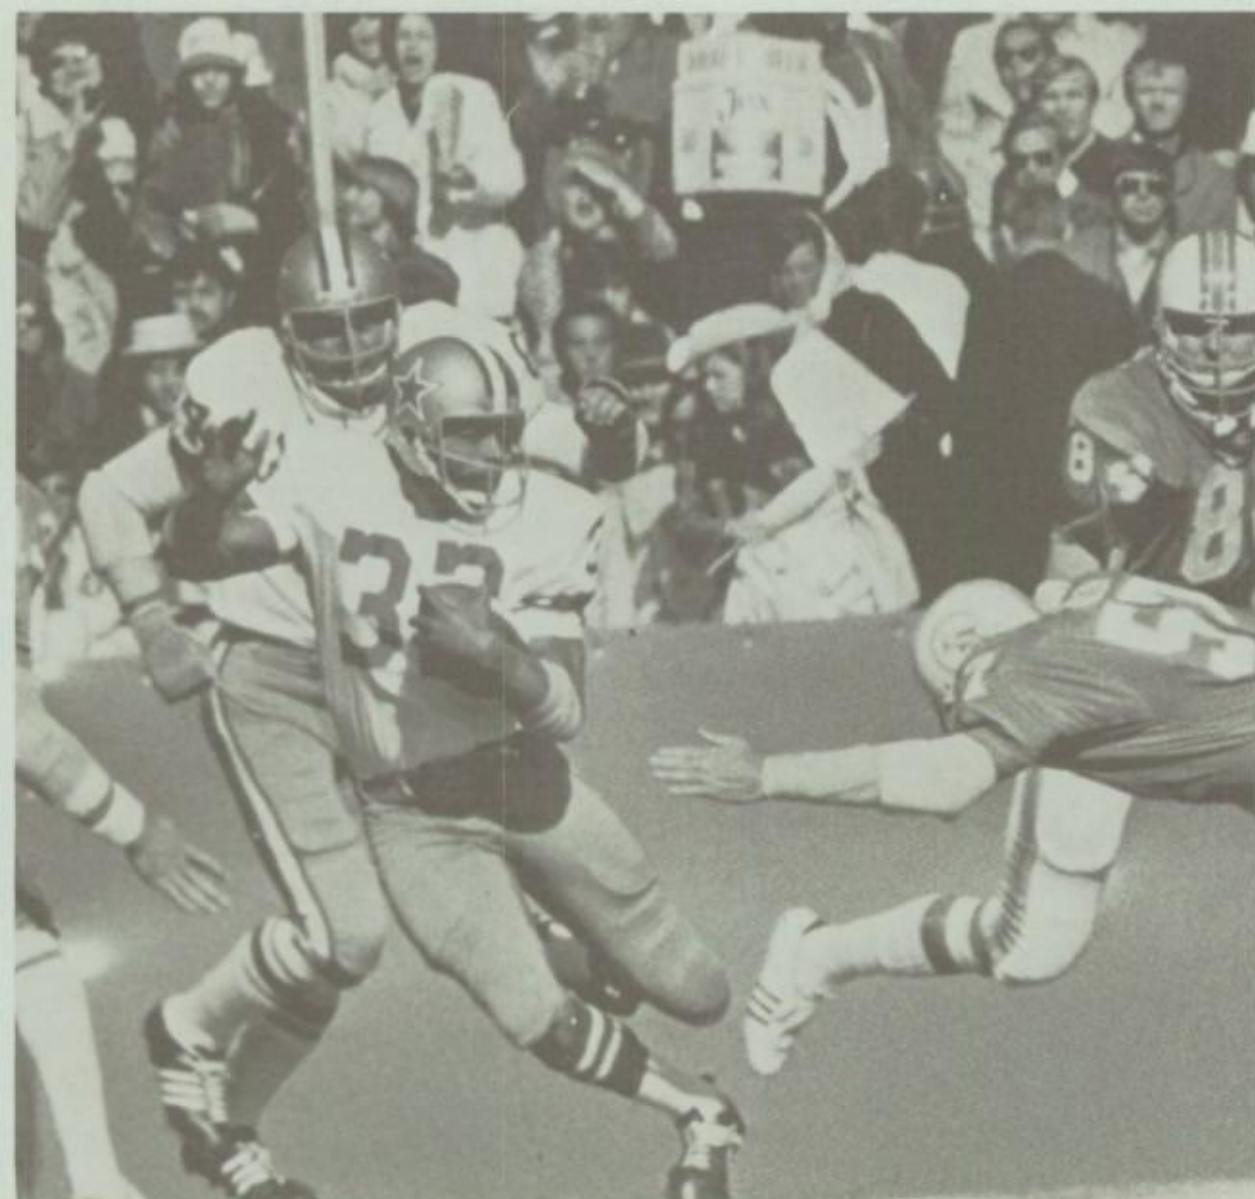

Fans over the entire U.S. watched the popularity of sports soar. A surprise to some was the discovery that football had dethroned baseball as America's most beloved sport.

Football began slowly in 1971 because of several contract squabbles between players and management. To many skeptics and some loyal fans, the possibility of a return trip to a championship looked slim for the Dallas Cowboys. By mid-season the Pokes still lacked a number one quarterback. However, Coach Tom Landry finally decided on Roger Staubach over Craig Morton for the position. A wise choice it was, for Staubach led the Cowboys to the Super Bowl, where they methodically slaughtered the Miami Dolphins, 24-3. "Roger the Dodger" collected top honors when he was rewarded the Maxwell Trophy and led the NFL in passing. Duane Thomas, who had earlier in the year blasted the Cowboy management, took on a new image of the silent man. Finally the talented running back granted several interviews, much to the discomfort of newsmen, proceeding the Super Bowl win.

While the Pokes were having player problems, the new Texas Stadium, home of the World Champions, was having construction troubles. Bad plumbing and parking lot problems plagued the stadium into a late season debut.

The baseball world seemed normal with the usual contract argument, disputes over synthetic infields, etc. But the season began with the noticeable difference. The Washington Senators had become the Texas Rangers. The Senator franchise was moved to Arlington under the stipulation that Turnpike Stadium would be enlarged. The demand was met, and Dallas-Fort Worth finally got its first taste of "big time" baseball, under manager Ted Williams.

The influence of politics and politicians pervaded 1972, as the busing controversy helped to shape the election confrontation of November. Democrat George Wallace won the Florida primary with an emphatic stand against compulsory busing. A wide-open, free-swinging battle was revealed in the scramble for the Democratic party nomination. Senator Edmund Muskie triumphed in the New Hampshire and Illinois primaries, but a nationwide survey established Senator Hubert Humphrey as the leading choice for the nomination. The campaign within the Republican party indicated no concrete competition for President Richard Nixon. His trip to China in February, 1972 augmented his election appeal by appealing the voters with his foreign policy stand.

Texas political activities unfurled in 1972 with the stock fraud scandal. House Speaker Gus Mutscher was convicted of bribery charges and received a five-year probated sentence along with Rep. Tommy Shannon, and speaker's aide Rush McGinty. Mutscher later resigned as Speaker of the House. Many of the candidates seeking state offices faced implications from opponents and the voting public of involvement in the scandal. Throughout the trial Governor Preston Smith and Lt. Governor Ben Barnes, both seeking the governor's office, faced innuendos of entanglement in the stock fraud case. An uncommon gubernatorial candidate was Frances Farenthold, who has been referred to as one of the best qualified candidates, but probably will not be elected because she is a woman. Reform in politics was the main desire of Texas resident voters.

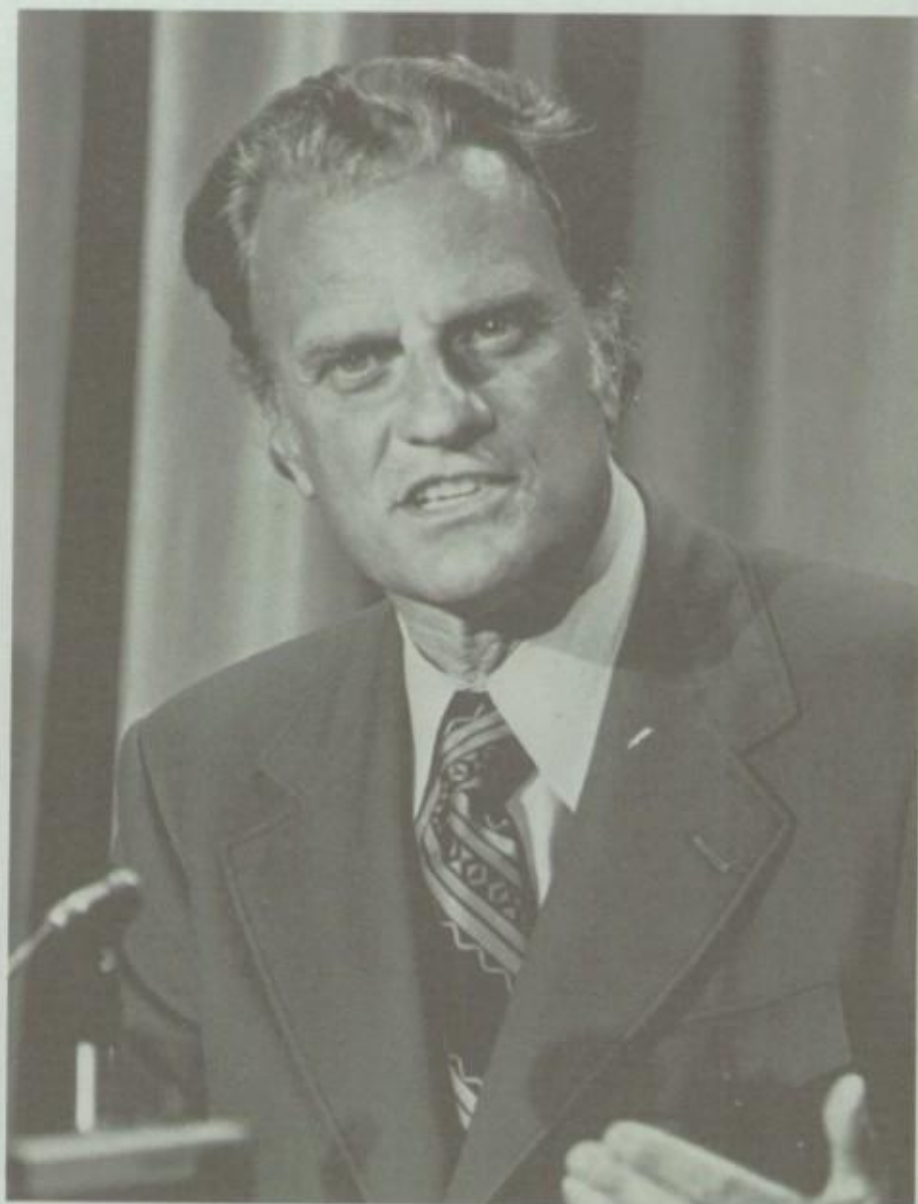

On the religious scene, the Jesus Freak Movement, specifically the Children of God, rapidly spread to the young generation in Dallas. At the same time traditional forms of evangelizing were observed by young and old alike. The Billy Graham Crusade visited the newly completed Texas Stadium as one of the highlights of 1971. With the assistance of Dallas area churches and religious organizations, the Crusade was well attended and quite successful.

Compulsory busing, the controversial issue argued throughout the United States, reached Dallas in 1971. Forced desegregation in the Dallas school district resulted in numerous problems, including the "white flight" upon its initiation and continual strife within the schools themselves among black and white students. The sight of students descending from Dallas Transit buses, used to transport students from homes to school, became quite familiar to area Dallasites.

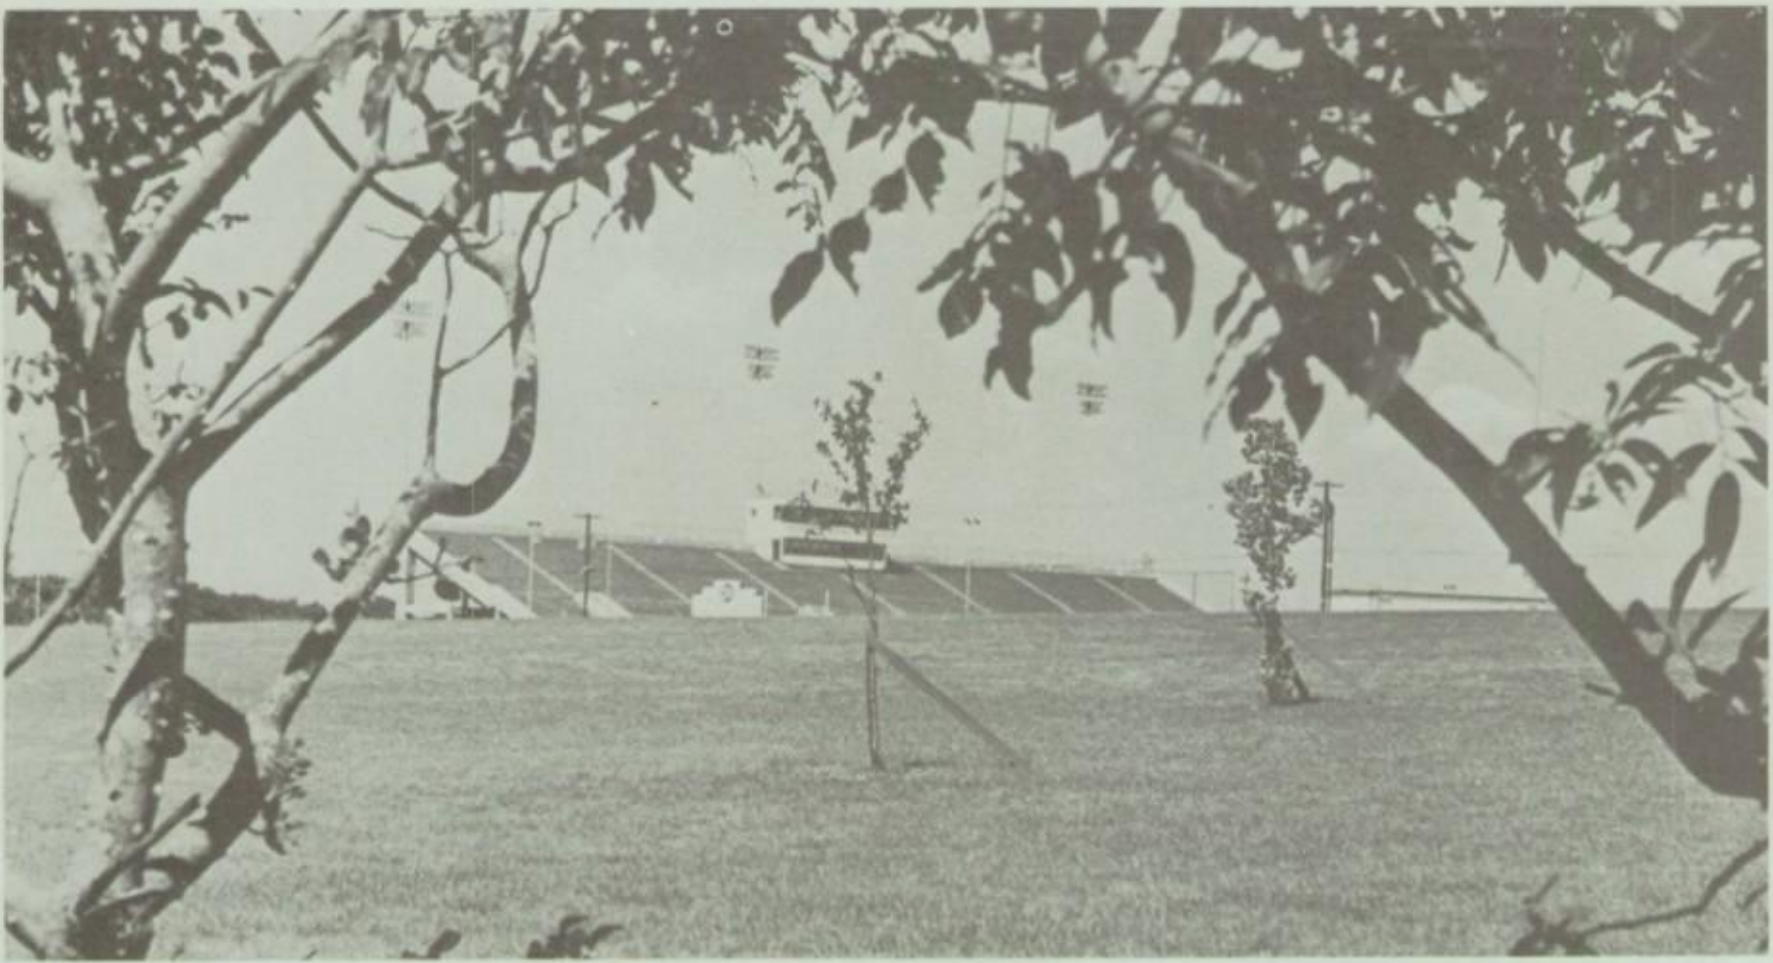

The fight for a cleaner, environmentally-safe society continued with renewed strength in the All-American city during 1971-1972. For example, a campaign launched by ABCD worked toward a more beautiful Dallas. A Federal report, revealing that high anti-pollution costs would be the death of small businesses, cause recession, and add to the high unemployment rate, momentarily stifled the ecology-minded. But new ideas were approached and immediate solutions sought.

*Therefore be at peace with God,
whatever you conceive
Him to be,
and whatever your
labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion
of life keep peace
with your soul.
With all its sham, drudgery and
broken dreams,
it is still a beautiful world.
Be careful.
Strive to be happy.
